WARNING: READ BEFORE USING YOUR XBOX™ VIDEO GAME ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM.

About Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games. These seizures may have a variety of symptoms including: lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by sitting farther from the television screen, using a smaller television screen, playing in a well-lit room, and not playing when you are drowsy or fatigued. If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Other Important Health and Safety Information.

The Xbox Instruction Manual contains important safety and health information that you should read and understand before using this software

Avoid Damage to Your Television

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them.

Static images presented during the normal course of game play may “burn in” to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner’s manual to determine if video games can be safely played safely on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner’s manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played safely on your set.

Unauthorized copying, reverse engineering, transmission, public performance, rental, pay for play, or circumvention of copy protection is strictly prohibited.

• ESPN Tip – Understanding Play Names

When throwing the ball on offense, it's helpful to know how the play is designed to work. The numbers or letters at the beginning of each play indicate the type of pass drop the quarterback will perform. The second part of the route refers to the primary receiver and his route (X or Y = receiver, TE = Tight End, Z = Slot Receiver, F = Fullback, H = Halfback).

Here is a quick rundown:

50 – The QB will take a 5-step drop. (Example: "50 F Speed Out")

90 – The QB will take a 3-step drop. (Example: "90 X Lob Corner")

PA – A "play action" play. The QB will fake a handoff to the running back before passing. (Example: "PA Z Post-Corner")

RO - The QB will "roll out" to one side before passing. (Example: "RO Y Corner")

PA-RO – The QB will fake a handoff and then roll out to one side before passing. (Example: "PA-RO X/Z Flow")

• ESPN Tip – Bluffing Technique

In multiplayer games, keep the other player guessing by disguising which play you call. On the Play Call Screen, once you've found the play you want, hold down the button corresponding to that play. Then press up or down on the left thumbstick or the directional pad to flip through other pages within the same formation (and to throw off your opponent). When you release the play button, your team will break the huddle with your original play selection. If you decide that, for some reason, you don't want to keep that play after all, roll your thumb over to B to back out to the Formation Screen. You can then release the play button without calling the play.

• ESPN Tip – Setting On-the-Fly Audibles

If you'd like to reconfigure your audibles for an offensive formation, it's easy to do so. On the Play Call Screen, pull and hold the right trigger. Press A, X, or Y to select the audible button "slot". Release the right trigger. Find the play that you wish to assign to the audible slot and press its corresponding button. The play will now be available from your Offensive Audible Menu.

• ESPN Tip – Offensive Hot Routes

If you want to switch a receiver's route at the line of scrimmage, you can call a Hot Route for that receiver. Move the right thumbstick in the direction of the route you desire and press the button corresponding to the receiver to assign the route to that receiver. By moving the right thumbstick in the following directions, you can assign the following routes: Up = Go, Down = Stop, Out = Out, In = In, Up/Out = Quick Corner, Up/In = Slant, Down/Out = Speed Out, Down/In = Speed Under. Click and hold the right thumbstick button and press the button corresponding to that receiver to instruct the receiver to pass block.

• ESPN Tip – Multiplayer Offense

If you like, you can play on the same team with a friend. The user with their controller in controller port 1 will control the quarterback. The other user can press A or Y to switch players. When the player controlling the quarterback passes or hands the ball off, the other player will gain control of the player who receives the ball.

Note: On run plays, the handoff or toss to the running back is performed automatically.

• ESPN Tip – Throwing the Ball Away

If none of the receivers are open, and you have no holes to scramble through, it's a good idea to throw the ball away to avoid getting sacked. Just make sure you're outside your offensive tackles when you press Black or you may be called for Intentional Grounding.

• ESPN Tip – Advanced Passing Techniques

If you want to get the ball to the receiver in a hurry, hold down the pass button for a bullet pass. If you need to throw the ball over a defender, or you want to make the ball easy to catch, tap the pass button for a lob pass. To pump fake to a specific receiver, double tap the button corresponding to that receiver.

• ESPN Tip – Maximum Passing

• ESPN Tip – Charging Up Special Moves

To unleash an especially powerful move (like a bulldozing shoulder charge or a bone crushing hit), hold down A. When your player's control circle fills and flashes red, you can release A and press any special move button to perform an ultra-effective move. Since tapping A causes your player to run faster, holding down A to charge up involves a tradeoff. You're momentarily sacrificing foot speed to prepare a dominating move for your oncoming adversary.

• ESPN Tip – Know Your Defense

When choosing a defensive play, it’s extremely important to understand the situation and know which players and which coverages are appropriate for that play. There are three choices that need to be made before your team sets up on the field. Here’s a quick breakdown:

#1 - Personnel

Your first choice will be selecting what types of players to put out on the field. Here’s a quick rundown of your basic packages:

- Goalline – 5 Linemen, 3 Linebackers, and 3 Defensive Backs. The Goalline defense is best used in stopping short yardage running plays. However, the linebackers may be too slow to keep up if they have to cover a receiver on a pass.
- 4-3 – 4 Linemen, 3 Linebackers, and 4 Defensive Backs. This is a balanced defense and is a good selection in situations where the offense may run or pass.
- Nickel – 4 Linemen, 2 Linebackers, and 5 Defensive Backs. More DB's means this formation is a good selection when the offense is likely to pass.
- Dime – 4 Linemen, 1 Linebacker, and 6 Defensive Backs. This defense is best used to in long yardage situations where the offense is almost certain to pass.
- Prevent – 3 Linemen, 1 Linebacker, and 7 Defensive Backs. The Prevent defense is generally reserved for extremely long yardage situations, as it essentially concedes the short gain to keep the other team from breaking off a huge play.

Note: Some teams may have slightly different initial defensive packages such as the 3-4, the 46, or the Bear. Take your favorite team into Practice Mode to see what their defensive scheme includes.

#2 – Fronts

Once you've selected who will be out on in the field, it's time to figure out what they'll be doing, beginning with the defensive line. Scroll through the various fronts to see your options. Think the other team will be running it up the middle? Try "All In", which brings all the linemen in and clogs up the middle. Want one of your linebackers to blitz? Use "Fan" to open up the line a little bit and give him some space to get through. There are several more available. It's up to you to decide what to do based on the situation.

#3 – Coverages

Now that the linemen have jobs, it's time to decide what everyone else will be doing. There are four basic assignments you'll see given to the linebackers and defensive backs, which are as follows:

- Bump 'n' Run – Designated in the play diagram by a T or upside-down T. The defender will play close to the receiver coming off the line and give him a little bump to try and throw off his timing.
- Man – Designated in the play diagram by a short line. The defender will stick with his man regardless of where he goes. Man coverages give your defense a little more freedom to be aggressive, but make sure your backs are talented enough to cover their man one-on-one.
- Zone – Designated in the play diagram by an orange circle. The defender will stay in his general zone rather than stick with a specific man. Zone coverages are a bit safer than man coverages, as you've typically got someone else to pick up the slack if one man gets beat.
- Blitz – Designated in the play diagram by a longer line extending through the line of scrimmage. Blitz a player or two if you think you know which hole the offense will run through or you want to put pressure on the QB. Just remember that you may weaken your pass coverage or your run containment.

Learn which types of plays are best suited for which types of situations. The better you know your defense, the better your chance of shutting the other team down when it counts most.

You can find some more in-depth information on the specifics of defensive plays in the game's Reference Guide that can be found in Practice Mode.

Game Plan

Game Plan accesses the Depth Chart, Substitutions, Injuries, Defensive Matchups and the Audible Manager.

⇒ Depth Chart

The Depth Chart Screen shows each player's ratings and their current fatigue level.

- To switch the player position list, pull the left trigger or the right trigger.
  - To substitute someone for your starter, highlight each player and press A to put a check mark next to their name. The substitute will replace the starter on the next play.
- Note: The Depth Chart only allows you to substitute a player who plays the same position as the person you take out.

⇒ Substitutions

The Substitution Screen gives you a lot of control when substituting. You can substitute by Formation or Package, and you can sub in a player whose natural position isn't the same as the player you take out (a Fullback going in for a Halfback for a short yardage run, for example).

To substitute for a player:

- Pull the left or right trigger to toggle between "By Formation" and "By Package".
- Press Black or White to change the Formation or Package.
- Highlight the player you wish to substitute for and press A. The Select Replacement Player Screen appears.
- Highlight the replacement player and press A.

⇒ Auto Substitutions

Set the substitution settings here.

- Auto Sub Out – Sets the fatigue level at which a player will be subbed out.
- Auto Sub In – Sets the fatigue level at which a player will be subbed back into the game.
- Injury Status - This is the minimum injury status that a player can play in the game: Healthy, Probable, Questionable, or Doubtful.
- On The Fly Sub – When set to Position, the user’s offense substitutes player by player when performing On The Fly Substitutions on the Formation Select Screen. When set to Package, the user’s offense substitutes multiple players at once, based on Package lineups.

⇒ Injuries

It’s an unfortunate part of the game, but as the contest progresses, injuries may occur. The Injuries Screen gives you a quick summary of all the players who are hurt and how long they are expected to be out of action.

⇒ Defensive Matchup

To maximize your defense’s effectiveness, assign your best defenders to cover the offense’s most dangerous players. In some cases, you may even want to have two of your defensive players double team a particularly dangerous receiver.

To double team a receiver:

- Highlight a receiver.
- Press A to check the Double Team box to the right of the receiver’s name.

To assign a defender to a receiver:

- Highlight a receiver.
- Highlight the “Add Defender” box two spaces to the right of the receiver’s name.
- Press A or Y to toggle forward or backward through your available defenders.

Note: Keep in mind that the defensive player will only cover his assigned man if he is in man coverage. When in zone coverage, he’ll stick to his designated area.

⇒ Audible Manager

You have immediate access on the field to just three audibles, so you should make certain they are plays you know and execute well. With the Audible Manager, you can select what these three audibles will be for each Formation. At the Audible Manager Menu, choose Offense Audible, Defense Audible, or Offense No-Huddle.

To set your audibles:

Offense Audible and Defense Audible:

A contract determines a player's salary and how long he is committed to the team. When negotiating terms, you'll need to take into consideration how much money the franchise can afford to pay the player while staying under the salary cap, as well as how many good years he has left.

To re-negotiate a player's contract:

- Highlight "Re-Negotiate Contract," then press A to advance to the Sign Contract Screen.
- On this screen, the "Cap Room" figure shows the amount of money you can afford to pay the player. The "Wants" figure shows the player's salary demands, and the "Interest" bar represents how much interest the player has in your offer, which appears just below the bar.
- Adjust the Salary and Contract Years by moving the left thumbstick or the directional pad right or left until you think your offer is fair based upon the player's wants and your needs, then press START to officially make the offer.
- The player will then either accept or decline the offer. If he agrees to the terms, an acceptance message appears and you return to the Player Contracts Screen. If he declines, you are returned to the Sign Contract Screen, where you can modify your offer and continue the negotiations if desired.

To release a player to free agency:

⇒ Trades (Offseason Free Agency – Week 6)

To make player trades:

- At the Player Trade Screen, highlight a player you are ready to trade, then press A. The player will then appear in your trade offer.
- Press White or Black to select the team you want to trade with, then highlight the player(s) you wish to trade for and press A to add them to the offer.
- Each team may offer up to three players or draft picks in one trade. Each team’s available draft picks are listed in a separate section when toggling between the various positions on the team (with the left trigger or the right trigger). As you set the trade, the interest bar shows the other team’s interest in your offer.
- To remove any player from the trade offer, highlight him again in the roster list and press A.
- When you think the offer is fair, press START, then select YES to make the offer. If the other team accepts, the players will switch teams. If the offer is rejected, you may receive a counter offer in return, which you can then accept or modify to your liking. If the original offer is flat out rejected, you can make some changes and try again, initiate a trade with another team, or wait until later in the season to give it another go.
- Also keep in mind that the entire process can be initiated in reverse using the same method. You can search through teams until you find a player (or players) that you want to trade for, add them to trade, and then figure out which players on your team you want to give up in return.

⇒ Trading Block (Offseason Free Agency – Week 6)

- To remove a player from the trading block, highlight him in his trading block slot, then press A and select the “Withdraw Item” option.
- If another team is interested in trading for the player at any time during the season, that team will make its interest known on this screen. Highlight your player and press A to view the offers.

⇒ Injury Report

As the season progresses and player injuries amass across the league, the Injury Report gives you a quick summary of all the players who are hurt and how long they are expected to be out of action.

⇒ Coach Gameplan

Every coach has a different approach to the game, and his gameplan is a direct reflection of that. Set up your gameplan the way you think the game should be played, and your team will not only train to become more proficient in that style, but their play on the field will be affected as well.

- Offense: Run / Pass – Determine whether your team's offense is weighted more toward the run or the pass.
- Pass: Short / Deep – Decide if you want your team's offense geared more toward quick passes for short gains, or if you want to go all out and rely more on the long bomb.
- Run: Outside / Inside – Determine whether you want your team to pound it up the middle, or call outside running plays that require speed rather than power.
- Defense: Run / Pass – The further this slider is to the left, the more run defense plays your team will call; the further it is to the right, the more pass defense plays they'll call.
- Defense: Man / Zone – Decide if you want your defense to call more man coverage or zone coverages on defense.
- Blitz – If you want to see your team blitz more often, crank this slider up.
- Cover: Short / Deep – Determine whether you want your defense geared more towards stopping short passes or the longer ones.

• ESPN Tip – Altering Your Gameplan Wisely

Setting your gameplan options to the appropriate levels is an important task. Be sure to consider your personnel. Is our team full of talented defensive backs? Weight your “Defense: Man / Zone” slider towards the left to take advantage of their athleticism and play a little more aggressively. Does your team have a power back like Jerome Bettis, or a finesse back like Warrick Dunn? This should affect the way you set your “Run: Outside/Inside” slider. Does your team have a QB with a strong arm to go along with a talented and speedy wide receiver corps? Then set your “Pass: Short / Deep” passing slider to the right and let your team throw long bombs all game. Knowing your team’s strengths and weaknesses and building the gameplan around them can make a big difference and cause you have a great season instead of just a good one.

Retirement Negotiations

The wear and tear of multiple NFL seasons takes its toll on your players, and eventually, they'll opt to hang it up. But all is not lost. Occasionally, you can encourage one last tour of duty from a retiring veteran by giving them the right kind of encouragement (read big bucks and minimal years). If your offer is good enough, you just might be able to keep a player around long enough for that last big Super Bowl push.

To try to talk a player out of retirement:

- Press A on a highlighted player whose status is listed as "retiring."
- Highlight "Talk out of retirement" and press A.

- Try altering dollar amounts and contract length. If there's a chance your player will come back to the team, you'll see his interest increase. (For more info, see Contracts on page 22).
- Press START to make an official offer and see if the player is indeed willing to give it one more go.

Re-Sign Players

Free-Agent Wire

Every year on June 1st, the NFL opens the Free Agent floodgates, and during the 45 days leading up to the NFL Draft, teams across the league compete for players whose contracts are up. If you want to build a dynasty, nabbing the players that best suit your team's needs is a must. But, like the old saying goes, nothing in life is free, so be prepared to outbid the rest of the league if you want to acquire the most coveted players out there.

- Pull the left or right triggers to toggle between positions.
- Press White or Black to toggle between Free Agents, Targets, and Team Needs.
- Use the left thumbstick or directional pad to highlight the player you're interested in signing.
- Press A to make an offer.
- Contract negotiations here work identically to Contracts under the Front Office Menu (see page 22), with one twist. Instead of signing right away, players will hold out for the best offer they can.
- Press START to jump to the Targets screen.

⇒ On The Table

If you've given a player an attractive offer, it will appear on his short list (which appears on the bottom left of the Free-Agent Wire Screen). The player's top three offers will appear in this window. After discussing all his offers with his agent, the player will eventually make a choice, so be sure to keep an eye on his other offers and keep yours as competitive as possible in light of your current cap situation.

⇒ Team Needs

Not sure who to pursue? Toggle over to your Team Needs using White or Black and take a look at positions on your roster that could use a new influx of talent.

⇒ Free Agent Targets

Between days, you'll be able to keep track of whom you're currently bidding on via the Free Agent Target Manager. Once you're happy with all of your offers, you can call it a day, and if you play your cards right, perhaps you'll land some key pieces to your Franchise puzzle.

- Press START on the Targets Screen to bring up the Advancement Overlay.
- Highlight ADVANCE A DAY and press A to advance one day. Use this to make sure that no other teams are planning to outbid you.
- Highlight ADVANCE TO END and press A to advance to the end of the Free Agency period. Use this when you've given players your final offer and you want them to take it or leave it.

- ESPN Tip: Editing Rookies

If you turned Edit Rookies ON in the Franchise Options Screen, you'll now be able to edit rookies during the NFL Combine period.

To edit rookies:

- Back out to the Franchise Menu; select Front Office; select Rookie Scouting; and select Rookie Report. The Rookie Report Screen appears.
- Highlight a rookie and press A. On the confirmation overlay, highlight YES and press A.
- Edit all attributes as desired by moving the left thumbstick or directional pad left or right.
- Press START to advance through each screen and, when finished, to accept changes and return to the Rookie Report Screen.

The NFL Combine

Each year, the NFL adds to its ranks by introducing a handful of the college elite via the NFL Draft. Finding a diamond in the rough is hardly guesswork though, so once a year, the top scouts get together to evaluate the incoming talent at the 4-day NFL Combine. Here you'll be able to spend time evaluating players, taking your findings into the Draft to help you make the best decisions possible. Some teams already have their minds made up on their rookie prospects, so if you opt not to participate in the Combine, you'll still be able to enter the Draft with basic combine workout info. However, if you're serious about winning, we recommend collecting as many reports as possible on players in needed positions.

⇒ Team Needs

Not sure who to scout? Toggle over to your Team Needs and take a look at the positions on your roster that could use a new influx of talent.

To evaluate Team Needs during the Combine:

- Upon viewing the Team Needs Screen, pull the left or right triggers to cycle through positions on the roster.

To scout a player:

- On the NFL Combine Screen, highlight a player who strikes your interest.
- Press A to bring up scouting report types. Each report costs a number of scouting hours, and the more hours you spend, the more accurate your reports. Remember, there are only so many hours in the day, so choose your scouting targets carefully.
- Use the left thumbstick or directional pad to select one of three report types:

- Basic Report - Cost: 1 Hour

Description: This report will give you a basic report on a player's general tendencies.

- In-Depth Report - Cost: 2 Hours

Description: A bit more advanced than a basic report, your scouts will not only give you the basic information, but also a quick glance at a player's primary skills for his position.

▪ Full Report - Cost: 3 Hours

Description: If you really want to get a good look at a prospect, there's nothing better than a full report, which includes the most accurate basic report, as well as estimated attributes in all major categories.

⇒ Combine Scouting Manager

Once you've finished assigning your scouting hours, press START to view your Scouting Manager, which will allow you to make any final adjustments to your schedule. Be sure to make any necessary changes before the day is done.

To reassign scouting hours:

- Highlight a player with scouting hours and press A.
- Increase or decrease his scouting hours by highlighting the number of hours and pressing A.
- Redistribute extra scouting hours as needed.
- Press START to scout the players.

• ESPN Tip – Efficiently Scouting Players

You have four days to scout players, and you can scout a player multiple times during the combine, adding to your knowledge of the player. In general, you'll never want to get a full report on a player that you don't know anything about. Spend your first combine day getting one-hour reports of as many players as you can. On subsequent days, spend additional hours on promising players from that group, and then spend the left over hours on more players. Just remember that on day 4, you don't have a "tomorrow", so you'll probably want to spend at least 2 hours on every new player you look at that day.

Once you've finished the Combine, press B to return to the Off-Season Schedule Screen.

The NFL Draft

The NFL Draft comes but once a year, and when the big day finally arrives, your managerial prowess will be put to the test. Your choices can potentially make or break the future of your franchise, so be sure you're prepared. Using ESPN NFL FOOTBALL's unique 3-D Draft system, all the info you could ever need will be right at your fingertips, giving you the feeling of being in a real NFL war room as you search for the next blue chip star.

- Highlight a player to see their scouting report.
- Press A to draft a player.

⇒ Suggested Picks

As the Draft progresses, the Front Office will send you messages via your PDA on the top players on their Draft Board. You can take their suggestions, or go your own way.

- Press A to draft a player.

Rookie Signings

Like other players on your roster, rookies require contracts. The sooner you sign these guys and get them into camp, the quicker your new team will start to become a unit, so try to keep the negotiations to a minimum. But keep in mind, if your draft picks enter the preseason without contracts they will become Free Agents, so be sure to make final offers before you advance.

Once you've finished signing your rookies, it's time to start off a new season. Congratulations, you've completed a year at the helm of your squad!

Penalties

Some penalty violations are black and white and others are up to the discretion of the referee. The Penalty Settings Screen gives you the power to control how every type of penalty is called on the field.

- Variable Degree Penalties – Adjust the sliders to set the discretion of the referee. Move the sliders to the right for more frequent calls or to the left for less frequent calls.
