Out of 10,000 Jedi in the Galactic Republic, you are the one. Chosen by your peers, you now stand in the Jedi Council Chamber high above the bustling metropolis of Coruscant. Encircled by great Jedi who sit in the stately chamber, a mission of great importance to the Republic is about to be bestowed upon you.

Far from Coruscant, deep in the reaches of space, the greedy Trade Federation has blocked shipments to the verdant planet Naboo. As a Jedi, it's your obligation to neutralize the threat of Trade Federation ascendancy and protect the interests of the Republic.

Your reverence for the power of the Force may be strong, but the resistance to your quest will be stronger yet. With destroyer droids guarding the Trade Federation battleship's corridors, battle droids lining the cobblestone paths of Theed, and the ominous presence of a Sith warrior, your Jedi skills will be tested to their limits—and beyond.

The task may be daunting, but trepidation has no place in the life of a Jedi. Whether you fight alone or cooperatively alongside another Jedi, deftly wield your formidable lightsaber for both offensive and defensive means and let the Force guide you to victory.

GETTING STARTED

Set up your PlayStation® game console according to the instructions in its Instruction Manual. Make sure the power is OFF before inserting or removing a game disc. Insert the Jedi Power Battles™ disc and close the disc cover. Insert game controllers and turn ON the PlayStation game console. Follow on-screen instructions to enter Jedi Power Battles.

Jedi Power Battles

supports the PlayStation™ DUALSHOCK™ analog controller and PlayStation Memory Cards. To save your progress, you will need a memory card in Slot 1.

DEFAULT CONTROLS

Note: If you run while in Lock-On mode, you can roll left or right using the Directional Buttons or Analog Pad.

Note: If you have an Analog Pad, you can make your Jedi run instead of walk by pushing the Pad further in one direction. See the Walk/Run Threshold under Options on page 5 for more information on setting the threshold between walking and running.

FORCE POWERS

When holding down the Force Toggle (L2 Button), Force powers can be activated if available. Note that only the Short Range Force Attack and the Special Item are available at the start of the game. Your Force Power Bar gets depleted with each use of Force energy. To find out more about the default Force powers of each character, turn to the Choose Your Jedi section on page 10.

GAME SCREEN

Although the scenery and action on the screen is constantly changing in Jedi Power Battles, there are a few elements of the game screen that are always the same:

Jedi Score

Your current game score. Improving your score will lead to special bonuses, Force power upgrades and other surprises. If a second player is in the game, his or her score will appear in the top right.

Special Item

Each character has a Special Item in the game. This display lists the number of Special Items you have in your arsenal. If there are two players in the game, the second player's Special Item count is displayed in the bottom right. For a list of each character's Special Item, see the Choose Your Jedi section starting on page 10.

Health Bar

Under each character and enemy in the game there is a green Health Bar Indicator. (The default for the bar is below the character, but pressing the Select Button can alter its location.) The white line on the right side of the bar indicates the maximum attainable health.

Block Threshold Meter

Blocking gets depleted with use. When this yellow bar turns red, blocking will fail. Over time it will return to yellow and your Jedi will be able to block again.

Force Power Bar

Jedi characters also have a blue bar that indicates Force power. As you use Force powers, the bar will shrink. Picking up Force powerups throughout the game can recharge your Force power.

Credits

Shows how many lives you have. You will lose a life if your Health Bar runs out or you fall to your death. In a two-player game, both Jedi share credits.

Lock-On/Targeting Indicator

Circle on ground shows targeted enemy. The circle will be the Jedi's lightsaber color.

JEDI POINTS & UPGRADES

Mastering the Jedi arts is no easy task. Consequently, as you move through the game, new Force powers and other upgrades will become available to aid your journey. Each character starts with only one active Force power and the ability to use a Special Item. By the end of the game, you can obtain up to three unique Force powers per character and upgrade other abilities.

Point Split in 2-Player Game

Each time you destroy an enemy in Jedi Power Battles, you will be rewarded a certain number of points based on the type of enemy you defeat and what process you use to defeat it. When your total points tally to certain milestones, you will be given a number of options. These include: upgrading the Health Bar or Force Bar; obtaining new Force powers; and learning new combination moves for your character. Points can also be acquired by picking up most powerup items on each level. (See Items section starting on page 19 for specific point values.)

TWO-PLAYER GAME

Sometimes even the most skilled Jedi can get into precarious situations where another Jedi at your side might make the difference between victory and defeat. Jedi Power Battles includes a robust, cooperative two-player mode so players can work together to complete the game. (See Character Selection Screen on page 6 for information on setting up a two-player game.)

Two-Player Game Screen

In a cooperative game it is important to work as a team while exploring and fighting. Make sure to keep both Jedi close to each other; the game's camera centers itself between both players. If there is significant distance between the players, an arrow will appear around the outside border of the screen to indicate the location of the off-screen player. The arrow is the color of the Jedi's lightsaber and is included to help you to bring the two Jedi back together. If your Jedi stays off screen for too long, you will lose a life.

You can also earn additional points for damaging enemies, with the most points being awarded for the use of damaging attacks that incorporate special Jedi moves.

Destroyer Droids

A three-legged battle machine also known as a droideka, the destroyer droid features twin laser cannons that rapidly fire at opposing forces. The droid can activate its own deflector shield, and is capable of rolling like a wheel to move quickly from one location to another. Points: 300.

Tusken Raiders

(See Vehide section on page 23.) Points: 500.

LEVELS

During the course of Jedi Power Battles you will travel across three distinct planets and even clash with the Trade Federation forces onboard their battleship in space. Each level presents a unique new challenge, but most levels share a common trait: a powerful enemy awaits at the end.

Level 1: Trade Federation Battleship

What was supposed to be the site of peace talks between the Neimoidians and the Jedi has turned into a precarious and antagonistic situation with battle droids and destroyer droids lining the corridors.

Level 2: Swamps of Naboo

On the verdant planet of Naboo you meet the Gungan, Jar Jar Binks. You must carefully navigate the marsh and use all your might to protect Jar Jar from enemies such as the battle droids and the native creatures of the swamp.

Level 3: City of Theed

The lush city of Theed, home to Queen Amidala, is now under the control of the Trade Federation. Although the cobblestone pathways are lined with battle and destroyer droids, plot a course through the streets and rescue at least seven of the Queen's handmaidens in the process. If you have the opportunity, try to seize an AAT. (See the Vehicles section on page 23 for AAT controls.)

Level 4: Theed Palace

Careen through the Theed Palace's majestic corridors in search of Queen Amidala, currently held hostage by Trade Federation droids. After liberating the Queen, chart a path to the palace hangar in order to escape the hostilities.

Level 5: Tatooine

Even though Tusken Raiders have you square in their sights, you must find a way back to the Queen's ship amid sandstorms and high winds in the dry Tatooine desert. Don't forget to keep the young Anakin Skywalker close by as you travel through the desert with the hyperdrive. Also, be prepared for an unexpected guest!

Level 6: Corsucant

The imposing and bustling capital of Coruscant is home to the Galactic Senate and Jedi Council. Armed with the knowledge of the Sith Lord's existence, it's imperative you make it to the temple. But beware of enemies who will do everything they can to prevent the Council from hearing your news.

Level 7: Ruins

Still engulfed in a conflict with the Trade Federation, the planet of Naboo is war-torn. While fending off droids, unearth the secret Gungan sacred place. Be prepared for resistance from loyal Gungan guards.

Level 8: Streets of Theed

Give your feet a rest and jump aboard an abandoned STAP. Quickly fly through the streets of Theed, but be careful not to ignore legions of droids lining the street to thwart you. (Read the Vehicles section on page 23 for STAP controls.)

Level 9: Palace Cliffs

Scale the rocky cliffs of the Theed Royal Palace while maneuvering around droids and their blaster fire. Once you reach the palace, search out four Naboo pilots and rescue them. One warning: time is of the essence, and you'll need to act fast to beat the clock.

Level 10: Final Battle

As the Queen, her forces, and the Gungans fight to free Naboo from the clutches of Trade Federation control, you're left with the task of dueling with the nefarious Sith Lord Darth Maul in the palace's generator core. If Naboo is to be free, you'll have to use your Jedi wits as well as your strength to defeat this most impressive opponent.
