THE STORY

The story begins over 1000 years ago when STREGA appeared in the small country of Zamuel. These STREGA possessed mysterious powers, and passed their knowledge to the inhabitants of Zamuel, transforming the once poor country into a prosperous nation. They bestowed mystical objects, known as Jenos, which would enable ordinary humans to exercise powers similar to their own. However, the STREGA underestimated the overwhelming drive of human ambition and greed. With this new power, the people of Zamuel would invade their neighboring lands. In no time, the entire continent was conquered, but the in-fighting continued. The Jenos were too powerful and soon the continent transformed itself into a world of destruction and death.

Through the following millennium, the continent struggled to return to the golden age of prosperity it enjoyed before the Jeno War. Then one day, the objects (now called Relics) were discovered in the Empire of Ipsen. After learning that these objects could wield great power, the Emperor ordered Lord Zauber to restore them. News of the revival reached the descendants of the STREGA, and they pleaded with the Emperor to suppress the Relics. The Emperor responded by declaring war on the STREGA. In the ensuing battle, most of the Imperial family, a great number of high-ranking ministers, and many STREGA were killed. Almost immediately, the other lords began vying for power, but the contest was a short one. Using the power of the Relics, Zauber easily crushed the opposition. Having seized control, he appointed himself Prime Minister and began eliminating anyone who posed a potential threat. Fearing that the STREGA would try once again to seal off the power of the Relics, Zauber began to systematically hunt down any survivors...

VICTORY CONDITIONS

The game is divided into stages and rounds. Once you win the necessary number of rounds, you complete your current stage, and then advance to the next stage.

DRAW

If time runs out, and both opponents show the same amount of life remaining on the LIFE METER, it will be considered a DRAW. A double knockout will also be considered a DRAW. When there is a DRAW, both players win the round. If the final round is a DRAW, that stage will also be a DRAW, and the game will be over.

CONTINUE

On this screen, press START at the "YES" prompt to continue the game at the same stage. Choose the "No" prompt to end your game and return to the Mode Selection Screen.

LONG-RANGE MAGIC ATTACKS

THE CHARGE BAR

The length and color of the Charge Bar indicates the level of Magic Attack that may be executed. Check the Charge Bar when performing Magic or Charge Attacks. The Charge Bar decreases every time a Magic or Charge Attack (see page 13) is performed, but will increase again with time (see Game Screen page 5).

Red: Magic Attack cannot be performed.

Green: Perform up to Magic Attack Level 2.

Yellow: Perform Magic Attack Level 1 only.

Blue: Perform up to Magic Attack Level 3.

CHARGES/SPECIAL MOVES

Charge is the action a character performs before a Magic Attack is executed. To perform Charge Attacks, press R1, L1, or the ⊗ Button during your Charge. If the level of magic is high, it will take longer to Charge.

While Charging...

Press R1 Button → Charge Dash

Press L1 Button → Charge Guard

Press ⊗ Button → Charge Jump

CHARGE DASH:

Press R1 Button while Charging

Approach your opponent while deflecting Magic Attacks. To deflect Magic Attacks, your magic level must be higher than your opponents.

CHARGE GUARD:

Press L1 Button while Charging

Deflect your opponent's Magic Attack with a barrier. The barrier will activate while the L1 button is pressed, but doing so will cause your Charge Bar to go down. If your Charge Bar reaches zero, the barrier will automatically disappear.

CHARGE JUMP

Press X Button while Charging

Unlike ordinary jumps, you can fire multiple Magic Attacks while performing a Charge Jump. Before your jump reaches the top, press a combination of □ Button, △ Button, and ○ Button. However, you cannot fire multiple Magic Attacks by pressing the same button several times.

DEFLECT:

Press L1 Button right before the Magic Attack hits you.

You can deflect your opponent's Magic Attack by pressing the L1 Button just before the attack hits you. This will not, however, work on some Magic Attacks.

MID-AIR ROLL:

Press L1 Button several times while in the air after a blow hits you.

After being knocked in the air, you will land on your feet and sustain less damage by pressing the L1 Button several times.

HINTS

THE TACTICS:

There are 3 basic elements to game play in Destrega: 1/Close-range attacks (body blows), 2/Long-range Magic Attacks, and 3/Dashes.

Magic Attacks beat Body Blows
Body Blows beat Charge Dashes
Charge Dashes beat Magic Attacks

If an opponent fires a Magic Attack, use a Charge Dash to deflect the attack. Then, retaliate with a Body Blow

If an opponent uses a Charge Dash, Guard yourself first. Then, fight back with Body Blows

If an opponent attacks with Body Blows, use Dash and move away. Then, retaliate with Magic Attacks

READ OPPONENT'S MOVE

To respond quickly to your opponent's attack, it is important to know what type of Magic Attack has been executed. During battles, each button (■ ▲ ●) produces a distinct sound (TIDU, EST, and FOH respectively) when pressed. Remember the sounds of these attacks and you will know what kind of attack is on the way, and then dodge or counter accordingly.

DODGING MAGIC All magic will home in on a target, either vertically or horizontally. If your opponent fires magic with vertical homing ability, use the Dash button to dodge. Likewise, if your opponent fires magic with horizontal homing ability, use the Jump button to dodge it.

For (TIDU), press Dash to escape
the attack

For (FOH), press Jump and avoid the attack

MAGIC VS. MAGIC: Based on a principle similar to rock, paper, and scissors each type of magic can be countered with another type. If a Magic Attack of the same level is executed, refer to the following:

- Button (Speed) beats ▲ Button (Power)
- ▲ Button (Power) beats ● Button (Span)
- Button (Span) beats ■ Button (Speed)

For Magic Attacks higher than Level 2 (see page 11), the property of the attack will be based on the first button pressed. If a Magic Attacks of different levels are executed, the one with the higher magic level wins.

Gradd is the main character in DESTREGA and lives in the mountains. He enjoys a rather carefree life and makes a living searching for valuable metals — using his magic to blast the rock. However, the Strega Hunt ordered by Zauber has reached his small village and has caused great damage. To take revenge for his villagers, Gradd has risen up to face his greatest enemy Zauber.

GRADD

CELIA

Like Gradd, Celia is one of the last surviving Strega. After becoming separated from her family during the 11-year war, she was taken in by a nomadic tribe in the East. She lived her life not knowing she was a Strega until she met Rohzen, who tells her of the mission she has as a Strega. Celia now accompanies Rohzen as they travel throughout Ipsen seeking other Strega.

ROHZEN

Rohzen was also a representative of the Strega 11 years ago when they tried to stop the Relics from coming into use again.

Injured and beaten by the Imperial forces, Rohzen disappears. He now returns to gather the surviving Strega and put a stop to Zauber's ambitious plans for world conquest. He is currently traveling through Ipsen in search of other Strega survivors with Celia.

Zauber, who is the Prime Minister of Ipsen, plots to take over the whole Empire. He is responsible for restoring the power of the Relics, which in turn, has been used to crush his political opposition. Now, he turns his attention to the task of hunting down the Strega. Zauber possesses the Master Relic — the key to all Relic power.

ZAUBER

RAONE

Raone is Zauber's most trusted general and right-hand man. He entered into Zauber's service when Zauber was just a small landowner. He will accept any orders assigned to him, and carry them out without fail. As far as Raone is concerned, Zauber's word is law.

FAHLMA

After Zauber managed to gain control of the warring states, Fahlna joins him as a young relic bearer. He is extremely skilled in using the Relics, and is believed to be as strong as Zauber's most trusted general, Raone. He keeps his thoughts to himself, giving no one any insight into his character. Fahlna says nothing of his past, so his background is unknown.

As the leader of the Resistance, Tieme strives to defeat Zauber and restore his country to its former glory. Long ago, he was a knight for one of the royal families, before Zauber took control. Tieme has gathered the remaining knights who oppose Zauber and has led them into a small fighting force.

TIEME COUGER

Couger is a spy sent from a small country at the edge of the continent, and has joined Tieme and the Resistance. As a foreigner, he is the one character who is able to view the current situation objectively. He moves silently throughout the land, gathering information, and executing secret missions. Couger is afraid that if Zauber is not stopped soon, his country may be Zauber's next target.

MILENA

Milena is the daughter of the former Prime Minister of Ipsen, and holds a temporary position in the Imperial military. She spends most of her time in the Palace caring for her cousin, Princess Anjie. Milena's goal is to find the man who killed her father 11 years ago.

ANJIE

Princess Anjie is the second daughter born into the Imperial family; however, the rest of her family was killed during the fighting 11 years ago. As the only remaining survivor of the Imperial line, she has been in the protective, and very strict, custody of her cousin Milena since the age of three. She often wishes she could give up her title and join the military like her cousin.

After seeing the horrid results of Reic fighting, Doyle resigned from military service and vowed to give up violence. In his prime, it was rumored that he was as strong as Zauber, even though Zauber possesses the Master Blade. He now lives quietly with his only son, Reyus, in a remote area of Ipsen.

DOYLE

REYUS

Reyus is the son of Doyle. He acknowledges himself as Straga, but hides his Straga powers, as they have not awakened. Zauber, seeking to force Doyle's cooperation, wounds Reyus in the confusion that follows. His Straga powers suddenly manifest.
