INTRODUCTION

There have been many generations of special warriors chosen to carry the mystic mantle of Turok, and their stories are told wherever grateful people gather to honor their heroes. This adventure, Turok: Evolution, concerns one of the greatest of them all, Tal'Set, leader of the Saquin nation.

About to enter battle against Captain Bruckner, a brutal butcher and vengeful veteran of many Indian campaigns, Tal'Set is ready to confront this most hated of enemies, when both are mysteriously plucked out of their world and into the simmering swirl of vicious plans that await in an ancient place...

There are sinister stirrings in the Lost Land, disturbing rumbles of a coming reign of unquenchable raging fury. It falls to Tal'Set to explore a wide range of terrain, and triumph in each; to battle in the air, in steaming jungles and beneath the rippling water.

If he is wise and swift and cunning, if he is courageous and agile and bold, he may yet emerge victorious and show all who follow the meaning of the name... Turok.

PLAYING TUROK EVOLUTION

DEFAULT CONTROLS

Controls shown are the default controls with default option settings. You change to the Alternate control scheme by selecting Control Setup from the Options menu.

FIRST PERSON MODE

Note: The right analog stick is also used to AIM your weapon.

FPS GAME DISPLAY

Health You begin with 100 health points. As you take damage your health points go down. When you reach 0 points, you are dead.

COMBAT

Combat is extremely varied and intense. Familiarize yourself with every weapon's second and third functions (varies per weapon) in order to maximize your combat effectiveness. Use your surroundings to your advantage. Enemies will make heavy use of cover during combat; don't waste ammunition! Fire when they expose themselves, or take time for precision shots at partially concealed enemies.

SWIMMING

There are many points where you'll have to swim. Generally, swimming controls are similar to land movement controls. Tal'Set is a fine swimmer, but his air supply only lasts so long. If you stay under too long, the display will turn red, indicating Tal'Set is about to drown. Surface (press Jump control) as quickly as you can.

CLIMBING

In certain places you can climb by approaching climbing surfaces and continuing to press ○ on the left analog stick to climb up, or ○ on the left analog stick to climb down.

FLIGHT CONTROLS

At some points in your adventure, you must pilot a flying Quetzalcoatlus to accomplish your missions.

FLIGHT GAME DISPLAY

WEAPONS (FPS Mode)

War Club The mighty War Club is the basic weapon you begin with, and is handy for close combat throughout your travels. Charge up the club (hold the R2 button, then release) to give your enemies a good spiked smack.

Bow The first distance weapon you collect, the Bow offers the ability to strike from afar. Remember to collect extra arrows, and that you can re-equip your quiver by recovering any standard arrows you shoot.

Tek Bow The Tek Bow is a much stronger bow equipped with special arrows that make enemies cry out for death. A powerful two-stage sniper zoom makes the Tek Bow a supreme choice for long range attacks.

Pistol The Pistol is a powerful automatic weapon. Make sure to collect ammo!

Sniper Scope Collect the Sniper Scope to add lethal sniper capability to your Pistol.

Shotgun The Shotgun fires a wide spread pattern that makes it less effective at medium or long range. Deadly in close quarters combat.

Quad Shot This useful device will allow you to load up to four Shotgun Shells at once, exponentially increasing the killing power of your Shotgun!

Grenades Grenades are excellent for use against entrenched enemies. Hit the secondary to activate deadly spikes that will allow the Grenade to stick to walls, ceilings, and enemies. Awesome!

Flechette Gun This watertight, air compressed wonder fires large steel darts. Air compressed power makes it a silent weapon, and enemies cannot hear its fire. This is the only firearm that can be used underwater.

Minigun Barrels Locate the Minigun Barrels and your Flechette Gun unfolds to reveal 18 barrels of 20mm death! Ammo goes quickly, but the Minigun can vaporize even huge opponents.

Flame Thrower Hand-held Hell is here in the form of a gritty gas burner that will barbecue foe and foliage. Did someone say "extra crispy"? Not available in Multiplayer mode.

Napalm Alternate Switch to the secondary fire to lob gelatinous projectiles at your enemies.

Spider Mine Deploy the device by pressing the R2 button, then control it as normal in FPS mode. Press the R2 button when deployed to perform the selected function (see below). The Spider Mine has several functions which are selected by pressing the L2 button. They are as follows:

LURE

Causes nearby enemies to follow the device, allowing you to set up ambushes or clear enemies from key positions.

BOMB

Detonates a powerful explosive, lethal to nearby enemies.

GAS

Dispenses a lethal cloud of poisonous gas.

ABORT

Instantly returns the player to FPS mode.

Note: The Spider mine has a limited range. The further the device moves away from Tal'Set, the weaker the signal becomes. If the device travels beyond its maximum range, it will self destruct automatically.

Rocket Launcher This powerful piece of primal ordinance fires a single large rocket surrounded by smaller swarming rockets. No need for an artillery strike when you've got one of these babies!

Swarm-Bore Attachment Collect the Swarm-Bore Attachment upgrade and you can fire 5 lethal homing projectiles at a single enemy. Each bore is a drill bit from hell, and can saw through flesh and bone. Eewwww....

Nuke Attachment Who needs backup when you're packing a portable nuke? Collect this upgrade and your rocket launcher can fire a burst of atomic energy that will vaporize any enemy that gets pulled into its blast radius.

Plasma Cannon The Plasma Cannon fires a blast of superheated energy that will give enemies more than a hotfoot.

Seeker Upgrade Collect the seeker lens and your Plasma Cannon can fire homing projectiles at multiple enemies.

Chain Upgrade Collect the chain lightning lens and your Plasma Cannon will fire a powerful burst that will arc from one enemy to the next! That's gotta hurt!

Antigrav Beam Switch the weapons function and you can capture an enemy in a powerful antigravity beam and hold him there. Slam 'em into walls, floors, ceilings, or even other enemies. (Not available in multiplayer mode)

Gravity Disruptor The gravity disruptor fires a shot that will send enemies flying backwards like they were hit by a freight train!

Antigrav Burst Hold down the shoot button, and your gravity disruptor will create a huge shock ring around Tal'Set. Charge and release to send any nearby enemies flying in every direction. Not available in Multiplayer mode.

Crossbow (multiplayer only) The crossbow delivers a powerful punch in a compact size, which makes it perfect for a man on the go. A full selection of arrows and powerful 2 stage sniper zoom makes the crossbow a deadly weapon indeed.

Dark Matter Cube In its primary state, the Dark Matter Cube acts much like a grenade, causing a powerful disruption. In its secondary form, it creates a matter anomaly and sucks enemies into its eerie vortex.

PICKUPS (FPS Mode)

AMMO

Arrows These arrows are steel shafted and come with a nasty tip. They can be used with any type of bow.

Explosive Arrows These arrows come with an explosive charge that detonates on impact. Be careful not to fire them at an enemy that is too close or you could lose your own limb. The explosive arrow can be used with any type of bow.

Poison Arrows These malicious arrows carry a deadly poison that can incapacitate the largest of enemies. Only the Tek Bow and Crossbow are powerful enough to launch this deadly projectile.

Pistol Bullets These .45 caliber rounds pack a mean punch when fired out of a pistol or sniper upgrade.

Shotgun Shells Packing a deadly blast in each cartridge. Load up to 4 shells into the quad shotgun for a devastating blast.

Flechettes Loading up your Flechette gun with these mean little darts gives a new meaning to the term "silent but deadly."

Minigun rounds Normally rounds of this size are only used in aircraft. Put them in your minigun and you can deliver a solid sheet of lead at your enemies.

Fuel A pyromaniac's dream, five liters of ultra flammable high-octane fuel. Normally used for jet engines, instead you can use it for barbecuing your enemies with your flamethrower.

Rocket Clusters These rocket clusters are very dangerous. Use them with caution in your rocket launcher.

Swarm Bores While looking small and harmless, the swarm bores are some of the most feared ordinance in the Lost Land. Nothing is scarier then seeing a rocket launcher with the swarm bore attachment bearing down on you.

Nuke Useful for when you have to kill every last living creature in a room. Strap on the upgrade to your rocket launcher and let her rip.

Plasma Battery These are used to power the high energy Plasma Cannon.

Anti-Matter Cell These alloy cells store powerful anti-matter particles. They provide the gravitational forces used inside of the Gravity Disruptor.

Tarkeen Keys Tarkeen Keys are hidden in certain areas which allow you access to otherwise impassable places.

MULTIPLAYER

These pickups can only be found in multiplayer

Cloaking Belt This handy device renders the player practically invisible for a short period of time. It is perfect for sneaking up on that unsuspecting sniper.

Death Helm An ancient barbarian cursed this helm long ago. Over time it has passed through generations of generals and kings. To the wearer it gives them ultimate power, but at a price.

Empathy Chest Plate This piece of armor well protects its owner by both blocking half of the damage being given to him, and by firing the other half back at the attacker.

Jump Boots Ever see that item that you can't quite reach? Never worry about that again with these handy boots that can put quite a spring in your step. Beware, however, as they wear out after only 3 uses.

Shield Belt This electronic body bracelet gives the player an invisible energy shield that can absorb the impact of all but the most deadly projectiles.

Damage Idol Each Damage Idol permanently increases the amount of damage a player can do by 20% while they still live. Collect up to five to double your damage.

MaxHealth Idol Each MaxHealth Idol permanently increases your maximum health by 20 points while you still live. Collect up to five to max out your health at 200 points.

Regeneration Idol Each Regeneration Idol permanently increases the rate at which you can regenerate health automatically as long as you stay alive. Collect up to five to reach the maximum rate of regeneration. This can become very powerful combined with the MaxHealth Idol.

Speed Idol Each Speed Idol permanently increases the running speed of a player while they manage to stay alive. Collect up to five to run at the maximum speed possible.

HEALTH

Small Med Kit Use this healing salve to heal small scrapes and wounds.

Large Med Kit This large medical kit can be a real lifesaver when low on health.

WEAPONS (Flight Mode)

Machine Guns Your winged mount is armed with twin .50 caliber machine guns. Ammunition is unlimited, so let 'em rip!

Homing Rockets In addition to your machine guns, your mount can also fire homing rockets. Center the crosshairs on an enemy to acquire a lock before pressing fire. (NOTE: Not all targets will lock on.)

PICKUPS (Flight Mode)

Rockets Restocks your homing rocket reserves.

Health Filling your Quetzalcoatlus' belly will help give him strength to continue the battle.

Overdrive This add-on temporarily gives your machine guns the extra firepower needed to get through the toughest fights.

SINGLE PLAYER

Purrlin They're just nasty, and that's all there is to it! You'll enjoy destroying these critters!

Captain Bruckner A vicious Indian fighter from the American west, in the Lost Land Bruckner has the perfect means and opportunity to wreak destruction as he commands his minions.
