Rick OK zoomers, stand aside and let the kids play with their joysticks (Right On!)

Neil Er Rick, what's a zoomer?

Vyvyan Rick, either give me that joystick or the word interface will take on a whole new meaning for you.

Rick Oh ha-ha, very witty vyvyan. Now, let me see, it says I can choose to be anyone I like - huh! Who would want to be Neil, eh kids?

Neil I've found my dictionary in the toilet, you know, like the one I thought I'd lost and, anyway, it doesn't seem to contain the word zoomer, which is hardly surprising really, like because some negative vibe merchant tore all the pages after 'c' out, didn't they Vyvyan?

Vyvyan Well you see, Neil, I had the most incredible curry one night, and we ran out of lavatory paper, and the only thing I could find was your dictionary. My bottom was so ....

Mike Listen, I've got to get this wonder of modern technology back to Harry the Bastard by the morning, and I'm not talking about my transplant operation.

Rick Apparently you can make your character do anything by choosing from the words at the top ...

Vyvyan What, absolutely anything?

Rick ... and the idea is to pack your belongings and move out of the house. Sounds pretty bloody anarchic to me. Now where did I leave my rucksack?

Vyvyan Oh my God, my bin liner, I put it out with all the rubbish.

Mike It's ok Vyvyan, Neil had another cold, your bin liner is in his bedroom, recovering. Why is it always what I want to know is how I'm going to fit a water bed full of chicks into my suitcase?

Neil Oh God, moving out time again. Why is it always because you're a disgusting hippy and we all hate you - ha! FADE ... Cue music

Rick
