ATARISOFT™

THE GALAXIAN* INVASION

What an induction! You no sooner join the intergalactic Warrior Fleet than the explosion hits. Suddenly the planet is under attack. Without prior training, you have to complete your first mission—defending the planet.

On-the-job combat is the only way to learn, so you have to go out there and do your duty. Shaking in your boots, you accept the assignment and board your intergalactic command ship. You soon find out that this invasion has something to do with a centuries-old interstellar war. As a result of this war, the Galaxian government lost many planets. Now they are fighting to reclaim their lost territories.

Knowing they have no right to your planet, you're ready to put your life on the line and fight to the bitter end.

NOTE: Always turn the console POWER switch OFF before inserting or removing the cartridge. If the title screen doesn't appear when the console is first turned on, press either the * button or the RESET button on the console.

THE GALAXIAN INVASION CONTINUED

The Galaxian invasion starts off with a bang. Instantly, an entire fleet of invaders descends toward the planet. The command ship suddenly becomes the target of a missile ambush. The Galaxian fleet is fast and strong. They attack ranking order easy to identify. Drones, the lowest rank, wear blue; Emissaries wear purple; Hornets are outfitted in red; and Flagship Commanders, the highest rank of all, wear yellow.

The Galaxian fleet is smart and experienced in battle. They have special radar that enables them to dodge intergalactic missiles. Their warfare includes tricks to divert attention. The Galaxian ability to pull off the unexpected forces you to use foresight and caution plus cunning and skill.

The initial attack is thwarted, but the battle isn't over. They'll be back stronger than ever. Next time, you'll be manning the command ship, again waiting courageously to defend the planet and defeat the Galaxian fleet. Use your accurate aim and quick reflexes, as well as strategy and forethought. A foolish move could cost you the battle and the planet.

GAME OBJECTIVE

Your game objective is to destroy the Galaxian fleet before it destroys you. In doing so, you score points—the player with the most points wins. Galaxian battle strategy is to attack in a succession of accelerating waves; each wave fiercer than the last. Waves are depicted with flags at the lower right corner of the screen. One flag appears during the first wave, two flags during the second wave, and so on.

You start the game with three intergalactic command ships—one at the line of battle and two reserves at the lower left corner of the screen. Side your command ship right and left to dodge Galaxian fire. At the same time fire intergalactic missiles to protect your command ship. You lose a command ship each time it is hit by either a Galaxian missile or a collision with a Galaxian. When all three command ships have been destroyed, the game is over.

The Galaxian fleet lines up in ranking order before individually plunging down, bombarding your ship and then flying back to the lineup. That is, if you don't shoot them first! These creatures are cagey; they'll tease you, diving in waves, approaching faster and faster with each wave. They swoop downward, firing laser cannons. The majority of them charge in single file; others blitz in groups.

Flagships never fly alone for they are always flanked by protective escorts. Their colorful uniforms make their down, firing, and then dodging your intergalactic fire. The excitement builds as the battle gets tougher. This game requires some quick evasive action and lots of planned strategy. The longer you survive, the more surprises you're in for. You never know what the Galaxian fleet has up their sleeves. Be on the lookout for just about anything.

GAME STRATEGY

When a Flagship is destroyed in flight in waves 1 through 14 the rest of the fleet stops firing for a few seconds of mourning. This is your big chance to get the escorts and any other warriors that you can. This may be the only time that they aren't firing at you.

Always have a strategic escape planned to avoid patterns of missile attacks. Think fast and scan the screen for methods of outsmarting the Galaxian fleet.

Some members of the Galaxian fleet are incredibly difficult to destroy, but with practice you'll outsmart them.

Point Values Table

	Information	Attacking
Drones	30 points	60 points
Fighters	40 points	80 points
Hornets	50 points	100 points
Flagships	60 points

Destroying a Flagship in flight earns you bonus points as follows:

Flagship with no escorts	150 points
Flagship with one escort	200 points
Flagship with two escorts	300 points
Destroy both escorts then the flagship	800 points
