OBJECT OF THE GAME/GAME DESCRIPTION

Don't let the bully of the block push you around. Fight for your right to walk the street. Hit 'em high or hit 'em low, but don't forget to dodge or block his punches. Avoid being taken away by the Police or bonked on the head by a flower pot in your fight to hold your head up high. Spar with the computer bully or with a friend to see who's the toughest on the block.

Please read this instruction booklet to ensure proper handling of your new game, and then save the booklet for future reference.

Throw punches, and try to force your opponent back to the very edge of the screen. If you are knocked into the manhole, the game is over and the winner is showered with confetti.

[1 player]

The computer is your opponent. (The computer operates the fighter on the right of the screen).

If you lose three rounds, the game is over. Use controller 1 to operate the controller on the left.

[2 players]

The players fight against each other. Use controller 1 for the player on the left and controller 2 for the player on the right.

The first player to win 3 rounds wins the game.

• Game Start

You start off with 200 stamina points and a time of 99.

- Use the upper and lower stance positions on the Control Pad () and the punch buttons (A and B) to punch where your opponent is not guarded. Force him back to the edge of the screen.
- If you are pushed to the edge of the screen and tumble off, you lose that round. Fight again on the next round.

- Flower pots may be thrown from an upper window. If one of these hits you, your stamina decreases by 5 points. Your opponent can easily knock you down while you are stunned.

- Occasionally, a patrol car comes around to check on things.

- If the fight lasts too long and time runs out, the patrol car comes along and takes away whoever is losing the round (the one who has been pushed back the furthest toward the edge of the screen). The player who is taken away loses the round.

- When there is only one player left, the manhole cover at the edge of the screen opens. If the player falls in, the game is over.

- The winner is showered with confetti.
