I don’t know how this got a seal of quality! It seems any old trash can worm its way through these days...

Trouble in Paradise

Donkey Kong gulped down the last of his banana milkshake and sighed happily as his old beach chair creaked as he wriggled his toes in the sand. "This is the life," he thought to himself. "The sun beating down on a clear blue sea, and no pesky banana-thieving Kreamlings to worry about." Lazily he raised a hand to wave at Funky, who was showing off his surfing expertise out on the waves with the squawking seagulls.

Donkey Kong settled back and closed his eyes, thinking he'd have a little doze, when he heard the sound of shuffling feet. Before he knew what was happening, Cranky Kong bopped him on the head with his cane.

"Yowch!" he exclaimed, glaring at the snickering old ape standing in front of him.

"Well, well..." said Cranky. "What do you mean you're doing sitting around all day? They won't get much of a game out of this, will they? I thought you were supposed to be a big star!"

"Even stars get time off," muttered Donkey Kong, rubbing his head.

"I never did," said Cranky proudly. "Whisking off maidens and throwing barrels around the place seven days a week. That's how I got where I am today. You know, hard work. None of this sitting around on the beach..."

"Why don't you go off and pester Diddy or something?" complained Donkey Kong. "Let me have a bit of peace for once!"

Cranky snorted. "Hah! He's off somewhere with that girlfriend of his. But still, I can see when I'm not wanted..."

Grunbling to himself, Cranky shuffled off down the beach, leaving Donkey Kong to pull his hat over his eyes, sink down into his beach chair and slowly drift to sleep.

When night fell and their big buddy still hadn't returned, Diddy and Dixie got worried and went to look for him. As they reached the beach, they saw hundreds of strange looking footprints that led from the sea to form a big circle around the spot where Donkey Kong's chair lay, smashed to pieces.

"Kreamlings!" Diddy gasped in horror.

On top of the bits of chair they found a note:

"To the yellow-bellied, land-lubbing Kong family:
Hah-arrrr! We got the big monkey!
If you want him back, you scurvy dogs,
you'll have to hand over the banana hoard!
Kaptan K. Roo!

"I thought we'd seen the last of that old rascal for a while," sighed Wrinkly Kong. Cranky's good-natured, old wife, when the rest of the family had read the ransom note.

"Well..." granted Cranky. "I suppose we'd better give him the bananas, hadn't we?"

Diddy was shocked. "After all we did to get them back last time? Donkey Kong would go crazy if he lost his bananas again!"

"Got any better ideas, you young whipper-snapper?" demanded the old ape.

"We've got to rescue him, of course!" said Diddy and Dixie together.

But Cranky just laughed. "Oh really? And who exactly is 'we', hmmm?"

"Count me out, dudes," said Funky quickly backing away from the group. "I hate adventures."

"I think I'm a bit old for that sort of thing," said Wrinkly apologetically.

"And I'm sure as sport not gonna do it," snapped Cranky. "Not that I'm past my prime, mind you—I could still do a better job than the rest of you put together—but I wouldn't be seen dead in a game that scrolls and has bonus levels and end bossess!"

"What about me?" asked Diddy, stamping his foot. "I went with Donkey on his last adventure! Why can't I do it?"

"You?" laughed Cranky. "You've only been in one game, and you didn't even get your name in the title! You think that makes you a hero?"

Diddy looked discouraged, but Dixie was quick to stand up for him. "Give him a chance—he could be a better hero than you ever were," she challenged.

Cranky scowled. "You think so, do you? You think he can make his way through all those Kreamlings and all those traps, all by himself?"

"He won't be by himself," she replied. "I'm going with him!"

Diddy stared at her and she stared defiantly back.

"But it's dangerous!" he protested.

"You're not scared, are you?"

"Of course I'm not!"

"Well, neither am I! Don't try to argue—if you're going, I'm going with you."

Diddy sighed. He knew a hopeless argument when he saw one. But still, he was Donkey's only hope! Of course, if he managed to rescue his big buddy, he'd become a real video game hero, too! Could he ask for a better chance to prove himself?

Cranky was looking them over shrewdly. "All right," he said. "If you somehow get back safely from this and bring back that good-for-nothing Donkey with you, I'll admit that maybe you have what it takes after all. But if you don't, there will never be more than cheap cameo roles for you in the future, my boy."

Diddy stood up straight and proud, ready for his new quest. "I'll bring him back, you'll see!" he declared.

The others offered him encouragement. Wrinkly gave him a warm smile, while Funky offered his hand for a high-five. "Go for it, little dude!"

And as soon as the sun rose again, the brave young pair set out.
Ahoy, ya scurvy sea dogs! Come to set sail to Crocodile Isle, eh? Well, first you have to plug the cartridge into the Super NES®. Then, turn the power on. You can watch the demo if you want, but how fun is that? Press START when you're ready to set sail for adventure!

SAVE SLOT

When you start the game, you'll have to choose which slot to save your progress in. During the game you will have to make it to Kong Kollege so Wrinkly Kong can save your game, but more on that later. If you're continuing your game from before, you'll be able to select the saved game on this screen. You can also copy a saved game into another slot on this screen.

GAME PLAY MODES

You can play Donkey Kong Country 2 by yourself or with a friend.

In "Two-Player Contest" mode, you take turns with a friend to see who can finish the most levels in the shortest time.

In "Two-Player Team" mode, both players take turns playing, with one controlling Diddy and the other controlling Dixie.

Game Screen

During game play, the different counters that tell you how many items you have collected are scrolled off the screen. They will appear when you collect an item. The following things might appear on the screen:

BANANA COUNTER
This keeps track of how many bananas you collect. Get 100 for a free life.

K-O-N-G LETTERS
Collect the set to earn a free life.

LIFE BALLOON METER
This appears when you get an extra life balloon, or lose a life, to let you know how many lives you have remaining.

TIMER
In the Bonus Levels you will have a limited amount of time to get the Kremkoin.

MAP SCREENS

There is a map screen for each of the Worlds in DKC 2. The maps show the different Levels in the World. You can also see the locations of the different Kong Family members who will help you on your adventure. In each location, arrows will point in the direction you can go next.
There are tons of different things you can do in Donkey Kong Country 2! Fortunately, it's not possible to do them all at once, so it's really not as overwhelming as it might seem.

Look at all these buttons! It's ridiculous, I say! Kids in my day went with joy if we gave them two to press!
Diddy Kong!

Diddy's in the starring role this time and he's off to prove himself a true member of the Kong Family of Video Game Heroes. He'll have his work cut out for him as he storms Kaptaik K. Roo's pirate haven on Crocodile Isle!

Cartwheel
Diddy's signature cartwheel attack lets him bowl over enemies. If he cartwheels off the edge of a platform and then jumps, he'll leap a little farther than he does with a normal jump.

Throw
Diddy can pick up barrels and certain enemies (after stepping on them), and then throw them. Press the Y Button to pick up a barrel, and release the button to throw it. If you press Down on the Control Pad as you release the button, you will put the barrel down.

Jump
Jumping is a skill you'll need for exploring all the different nooks and crannies of Crocodile Isle. You can also jump on top of some enemies to attack them.

Swim
Swimming comes in handy in the many aquatic areas of Crocodile Isle. Tap the B Button to make Diddy swim. Use the Control Pad to make him sink or swim faster.

Climb
Crocodile Isle is covered with climbable terrain, which makes it a perfect place for a monkey to explore. Diddy and Dixie can not only climb up and down here, but they can also climb to the right and left if the rope or chain goes in that direction.

Diddy's Advantages
Diddy's cartwheel jump enables him to make jumps that are longer than average jumps. Also, notice that Diddy carries the barrel out in front of him and that it acts like a shield as he runs into enemies while carrying it.

Run
Hold down the Y Button as you move to make Diddy run. Running makes the game faster and more exciting.
Dixie and Diddy are inseparable friends and go everywhere together. Both share a love of adventure and the awesome abilities to make it fun! Dixie’s powerful ponytail allows her to equal and sometimes even surpass Diddy’s adventuring abilities!

Throw
Dixie uses her ponytail to pick up and throw barrels. She holds the barrels above her head, which gives her a slightly different throwing trajectory than Diddy has.

Climb
Being a monkey, Dixie can swing just like Diddy and Donkey Kong. Her aerial abilities give her an edge when she’s at high altitudes because she can helicopter to slow her fall.

Swim
Dixie isn’t afraid of the water (or much else for that matter). She’s as much at home under the sea as her friend Diddy is.

Run
Hold down the Y Button as you move to run. While running, you will automatically pick up any objects in your path, so use this with caution.

Team-Up!!
When Diddy and Dixie are together, they form a powerful team. Press the A Button to pick up the other character. You can then throw your pal using the Y Button. You can use the throw to attack enemy characters or to reach normally inaccessible places and items. Try to toss your friend in many different situations.
Gold doubloons and pieces of eight! Pirate loot and sea-borne swag! It's all here, strewn across Crocodile Isle! By bagging much coin, you gain many game play advantages!

Cranky's Video Game Hero Coin

These huge DK coins are well hidden, one per level, by Cranky himself. Collecting these will improve Diddy's status as a video game hero in Cranky's eyes. You have not really finished a level until you have collected the Video Game Hero Coin.

Kremkoins

You can earn a Kremkoin in each Bonus Level. There are three different types of Bonus Levels. In one type, you must collect all the Stars to make the Kremkoin appear. In the second type, the Kremkoin is hidden and you must find it. In the third type, you have to defeat all the baddies to make it appear. You can use Kremkoins to pay off the monstrous Klubba so you can cross his toll bridge. What is on the other side? That's for you to find out!

Banana Bunch Coin

These coins are used to pay the various members of the Kong Family for their help. Yes, the days of free advice are over. Even old Cranky charges for his words of wisdom (although the insults are still free).
More Swag!

No Animal Sign
This sign indicates that your animal friend cannot continue beyond this point. If you try to go past it, you will simply disappear. Don't feel too bad, though. You'll be rewarded depending on how difficult it was to reach the sign.

Bananas and Banana Bunches
The trail of bananas will lead you to your ape-napped buddy, Donkey Kong. It is possible to get every banana, and in fact the bananas will always lead you in the proper direction if you get lost.

Crates
You'll find these scattered about the island. Picked up and thrown, they make good weapons to beat enemies with.

Extra Life Balloons
There are three different colored Extra Life Balloons. The different colors are worth different numbers of lives. Red is worth the fewest. Blue is worth the most.

Kannon and Kannonballs
Kannonballs by themselves are good, reusable ammunition to throw at enemies. If you place a kannonball in a kannon, it will flash, indicating that it's loaded. Jump into the loaded kannon and it will launch you to a Bonus Level.

End of Level Target
Jump on the target to finish the level. If you jump from a high enough altitude, you will win the prize that is displayed.

Treasure Chests
These chests contain many different types of items. Break them open by throwing them at enemies to discover what is inside.

KONG Letters
Collect the letters to spell KONG and earn an extra life.

Animal Crates
Jump on the different animal crates to release your animal friends from inside.

Hot Air Balloon
Use this balloon to safely float over lava, just don't run out of hot air or things will get a little hotter.
Barrels
What's more fun than a barrel full of monkeys? How about Diddy and Dixie in a barrel? There are tons of barrels in DKC 2, and most have special uses.

Bonus Barrel
Bonus Barrels launch you into Bonus Levels when you jump into them.

Plus and Minus Barrels
Plus and Minus Barrels are found on the different roller coaster levels. The Plus Barrels will add time to the timer, the Minus Barrels will subtract time to the timer. The Minus Barrels will send you to the Minus World (Uhh... wrong game. Actually, they will take seconds away from the timer.) When the timer runs out, Kackle will catch you!

Check and X Barrels
The U Barrels will open the gates on the roller coaster, the X Barrels will close them.

Barrel Cannons
There are several types of Barrel Cannons. The Arrow Barrel simply launches you in the direction of the arrow. Use the Control Pad to make your character move to the right or left once you're airborne. Blast Barrels will automatically launch you in a certain, pre-programmed direction. Delayed Blast Barrels will allow you to aim them in the desired direction before they blast you out. Be careful though, with some of these barrels you only have a limited amount of time to shoot them before they go off automatically.

Steerable Barrel
You can steer this Barrel in any direction.

Rotatable Barrel
Use Right and Left on the Control Pad to rotate this Barrel into the desired position.

Diddy & Dixie Barrel
Some Barrel Cannons are usable only by a certain character.

TNT Barrel
TNT Barrels explode when they are thrown. Be careful, because some Kremlings actually like to live in TNT Barrels.

DK Barrels
Here’s where you’ll find your partner if you don’t already have him or her with you. If you already have both characters, you won’t be able to break this Barrel when it is in mid-air.

Star Barrels
These Barrels mark a midway point in the stage. If you break one of these Barrels, you’ll continue at that point if you lose a life later in the level.

Exclamation Point Barrel
Break these Barrels to gain temporary invincibility.

Animal Barrel
Barrels marked with an animal friends picture will transform Diddy or Dixie into the animal if they jump in. If you jump into a Barrel that shows a picture of the animal that you are already transformed into, you will gain an extra hit as that animal.

Biplane Barrel
This flying barrel is available for rent from Funky Kong. Use it to travel back to levels you have already visited.
As the home port of Kaptain K. Rool's cutthroat pirates, Crocodile Isle is teeming with all types of Kremlings. There's even more variety of terrain on this island than there was in Donkey Kong County. And K. Rool definitely has the home turf advantage here.

Gangplank Galley

Diddy's first action takes place aboard K. Rool's scuttled flagship, Gangplank Galloone. Even though this hulk isn't seaworthy, it's still manned by a scurvy Kremling crew. You'll find lots of hooks and rigging to climb on here. You can also duck into the flooded cargo hold for more fun!

Visitors venturing onto Crocodile Isle receive a warm reception from the bubbling lava of Crocodile Cauldron. The key to these levels is to avoid getting burned by the ever-present red-hot lava. Fortunately, there are many different ways to keep your feet cool: crocodile heads provide safe stepping stones in one area, and hot-air balloons will give you a ride in another.

Yet another Kremling Galleon has sunk here in Krem Quay. Once the port of Crocodile Isle (as if anyone would really want to visit), the place is now a swamp, crawling with rats and other vile vermin. Some of the underwater action here is particularly gloomy, so you'll need a friend with a light to show you the way.

What do the Kremlings do for fun when they aren't making the Kong Family's life miserable? They go to Krazy Kremland, the island amusement park! This area features roller coasters that are not only in extreme states of disrepair, they are also haunted!
You're not out of the woods yet! In fact, you're just entering it when you get to Gloomy Gulch. This spooky area is also haunted by the evil Kremling spirits known as Klaak and Kackle. Even the ropes that once provided a safe way to climb over obstacles are now ghostly and insubstantial.

Kaptain K. Rool is no fool; he's saved the most dastardly traps for use in his own fortress lair. None has entered K. Rool's Keep and lived to tell the tale. Will Diddy or Dixie be the first?

There are rumors of a lost world located deep beneath Crocodile Isle. It has been said that this is the source of the Kremlings, and that there is valuable treasure to be found there, including the elusive true ending of the game. Only the most clever explorers will find this place.
It seems that Diddy and Dixie will not be alone on their quest. First of all, Rambi, Enguarde and Squawks return to add their animal abilities to the effort. A handful of new animals also make their debut on Crocodile Isle.

Rambi the Rhino

This powerful Rhinoceros loves to charge. Press and hold the Y Button to make him run. He will use his horn to butt everything out of his path.

Enguarde the Swordfish

Enguarde adds invaluable assistance in aquatic settings. While riding Enguarde, you don't need to press the B Button to swim. If you press the Y Button, Enguarde will dash forward and use his sharp bill to knock out enemies.

Squawks the Parrot

Squawks's role in Diddy's new adventure is much more important. Rather than just carrying a flashlight, he can now lift both Diddy and Dixie for high-flying adventures. Squawks can also spit eggs at enemies if you press the Y Button.

Rattly the Rattlesnake

Rebellion against the Kremlings who infest the island. Rattly offers his high-jumping ability to help the Kongs. He can jump much higher than the Kongs, courtesy of his springy tail.

Squitter the Spider

The web-slinging spider. Squitter is one of the coolest new animal friends. When you press the Y Button, he spins webs that knock out enemies. He can also shoot web platforms that the pair can use to cross gaps in the terrain by pressing the L, R and A Buttons.

Glimmer the Angler Fish

Glimmer lives in one of the sunken Kremling galleons near Krem Quay. He'll offer his light to show the Kongs the way through one of the darkened underwater levels.

Clapper the Seal

Most seals can't change boiling hot water to room temperature, or turn water to ice but Clapper can! Jump on him and he'll perform this valuable service for you.
Even though Diddy and Dixie are supposed to be going on this quest on their own, the rest of the Kong clan just couldn’t stay out of it, especially since there is money to be made helping beginning adventurers! You’ll find all the Kong Family members in the prime business locations throughout Crocodile Isle.

1. Funky’s Flights
   Funky’s Flights are the only way to fly! If you’ve already been to an area, you can use Funky’s Flights to revisit that place. This time, though, you’ll have to pay your fare in Banana Coins to get a ticket.

2. Swanky’s Bonus Bonanza
   Swanky’s Bonus Bonanza
   Step right up! You’re the next contestant on Swanky’s Bonus Bonanza! Play this game to win valuable bonus items! It’s a gamble, since you have to pay Banana Coins to play.

3. Wrinkly’s Kong Kollege
   Wrinkly’s Kong Kollege
   Of course, this manual will tell you almost everything you need to know, but since most people don’t read the manual, you can get a lot of basic game education in Wrinkly Kong’s school room. Since this is a private school, you’ll have to pay tuition in Banana Coins. Even if you don’t need the information, you want to go to school, because nice Mrs. Wrinkly can save your game.

4. Cranky’s Monkey Museum
   Cranky’s Monkey Museum

Kremlings Ahoy!

You're on enemy ground now, so you'll be facing craftier, crueler Kremlings than ever before. They don't wear that pirate regalia for nothing!

17. Zinger

18. Klumper

MORE BADDIES!

Kockle & Kloak
These ghostly Kremmling spirits haunt many locations on Crocodile Isle.

This crazy cat is a whirling dervish. It will tangle you up in its many tails and spin you round until it collapses.

Kaptain K. Rool

Puftup
Slowly but steadily, Puftup rises from the depths, getting bigger and bigger as he pulls himself up. Watch out for his spines!

KrocHeads

Spiny
Spiny may have a soft underside, but its quills will strike you if you get too close.

Kaboom
This silly Kremmling loves explosive surprises. Watch out for TNT barrels—Kaboom may pop out just before you reach them.

Krook
Krook抓获s his hooked hands at anything that comes near.

Kutlass
Kutlass mailed-ordered his razor-sharp swords from a TV offer. They turned out to be a little bigger than they looked on his small screen. Excellent!
See, I knew you'd have to come crying to old Cranky, begging him to share his vast game play knowledge with you. Did you think that just because you tortured yourself by reading this boring manual I would actually reward you with some free hints? Pshaw!! You can pay for my hints in the Monkey Museum, like everyone else!

I did hear that that rag Nintendo Power will be printing up some sort of strategy guide for this game, though. I don't know why, since the game doesn't require any strategy that I could find! Anyway, if you really want to waste your money on it, you might actually learn some of the secrets. But don't expect to find me in their guide! This is the last pitiful cameo appearance I'm going to make!

Secrets: my beard! The only thing that's secret is the game play, cause I can't find any!
