OBSCUR: THE STORY SO FAR

Two years ago, at Leafmore High, a group of young teenagers were trapped inside their school and hunted by monsters created through biological experiments by the school's maniac principal, Herbert Friedman. Some of the kids survived that terrible night, while others perished. In an act of revenge and in order to make it out of the nightmare, they killed Friedman and assumed that the horror was over. Now, the survivors have picked up their lives and most of them have gone on to a university in the nearby town of Fallcreek. But all is not right on the university grounds; strange black flowers have suddenly sprung up everywhere on campus. While experimenting with these flowers in class, a dangerous substance was discovered that induces strange but vivid dreams. A handful of students find out that there is more to the flowers than anyone could have expected - when the seeds finally germinate, a bad trip suddenly turns into a horrible reality...

NOTE

At any moment while playing the game, Player 2 can join or leave the game.

OBSCURE: THE CAST

Shannon

Shannon Matthews is the sister of Kenny Matthews.

Her experiences at Leafmore High have left her with a dark personality. She is able to control black auras, sucking these into herself. Shannon succeeded at adopting herself to what Friedman changed in her and arguably is the strongest of the original group of survivors from Leafmore.

Kenny

Kenny Matthews is the brother of Shannon. He suffered as much as his sister, and like Stan Jones, he needs to use daily medication for what Herbert Friedman did to him. Outwardly, Kenny appears to be the strongest of the group, as he can push and move heavy objects like no other. However, mentally, he is weaker than his sister, and needs more medication than Stan.

Stan

Stan Jones is the only one in the cast who didn't enter Fallbrook University after the events at Leafmore High. He's a pizza delivery boy now, but with a talent for picking locks — something he learned during a short stay in prison. Stan uses daily medication to suppress the effects of being contaminated by Friedman's biological experiments at Leafmore.

Jan

Jan Wang is a young female video game enthusiast — a real gamer chick. She spends disproportionate amounts of her free time playing video games and partying. She has a very strong bond with her sister Mei, who is the dominant one of their relationship.

Mei Wang is Jim's twin sister. She's beautiful, but sweet as sour candy. She is also a hardcore gamer, and her only rival is her sister. Mei has a bad habit of backing all communication and security devices that pass within range of her PDA. She is dating Corey.

sven

Sven Hanten was born in Norway but moved to the US soon after his birth. He is obsessed with his birth country and their customs. An avid hockey player, Sven is a real brunder and is very strong. He is able to push and move heavy obstacles like Kenny can. Sven is interested in dating Amy, the appeal of which he shares with Kenny as well. As of yet, Amy has not shown her preference for either.

Genuine blond and Miss Wet T-shirt on campus. Amy Brooks has a phenomenal skill at deciphering and breaking near-impossible codes and puzzles. She is aware that both Kenny and Sven are interested in her, and is excited by Kenny's bad-boy demeanor, but is also thrilled by the way Sven looks at her.

A professor of biology on the Fallbrook campus, Richard James is not easily impressed. Having been forced to tame the rowdy student populace of Fallbrook University, there are now few things that scare or excite him. His scientific knowledge is a precious tool for inquisitive minds. A man to consult regularly...

corey

A skater who's no stranger to pain, Corey Wild specializes in climbing on top of things. He also used to fall a lot and break his bones, but as time went by and he got more acrobatic this happened less and less. He's a real car aficionado, and is equally in love with his car as he is with his girlfriend Mei.
