If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game – dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions – IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

For example, two players can play on the same side, or with four Controllers, three players can play against one. Note: A separate Controller is required for each player.

Mini League – Up to four players can play in a mini-tournament featuring four teams. Note: Only two Controllers are required for human multiplayer Mini League games.

Penalties – Need some practice? Choose to practice penalty kicks, or practice blocking them. This game can be played by one or two players, each using a separate Controller.

Beach Tournament – Compete for the Beach Tournament Cup! This is a one-player game only, giving you the opportunity to take part in an exciting, 3-round beach knock out championship!

Difficulty Level

Use the directional buttons and the X button to select Easy, Medium or Hard.

Game Field

The game field is shown in the preview window. You can choose another field to play on by using the directional buttons to select the small arrows next to the field name and then pressing the X button. The preview picture and field name will change.

In a Single or Mini-League game, there may be one to four human players. In a Penalties game, there may be one or two human players. Beach Tournament is a one-player game only.

If you choose less than the maximum number of human players in a game, the remaining players will be computer-controlled at the skill level you previously selected. Note: You may not choose more human players than the number of Controllers you have plugged in.

If you want to play the game with randomly assigned teams and players, highlight Quick Start and press the X button. Upon leaving this screen and choosing your Controller setup, you will be taken immediately to the Team Photo screen, described on page 10.

Team Roster

Soccer is all about strategy, and here is where you can make it happen! You can change your team's field positions and check on each player's stamina bar (under his or her picture). If you're feeling confident, you can experiment with different formations and strategies to better suit your team's strengths.

Kicker — Select the soccer shoe icon and then press the ✕ button. Next, select the member of your team that will take corners, free kicks and penalties, and then press the ✕ button. A small shoe icon will appear to the right of the Kicker's name.

Opponent's Roster — Take a sneak peek at your opponent's lineup! Select the chalkboard roster icon and then press the ✕ button. You can see each player's strengths and position. The only things you can't see are their stamina bars.

Rearrange Player Positions or Use Substitute Players:

1. Select a player's name and then press the ✕ button. The player's face will appear next to the list.

2. Move the player's face to the position you want the player to play and then press the X button.

3. The two players will switch positions.

To scroll through the formations and strategies, select the arrows on either side of their current settings and then press the X button. To hear a description of a selected formation or strategy, press the X button.

POSITIONS

The field of play is divided into three areas: defense, midfield and offense. Defenders start in the defense zone, Midfielders in the midfield zone and Offense (Forwards) in the offensive zone.

Goalkeeper (G): The Goalkeeper (also referred to as Goalie or Keeper) is the last line of defense. There is only one Goalkeeper per team. Keepers are the only players that can legally use their hands, but this is restricted to the goal area.

Defender (D): The Defender's role is to stop the other team from getting shot opportunities and control the ball within their half of the field. They do this by positioning and disruption. At times, Defenders might be asked to concentrate more on supporting the attack or actually making attack runs and long distance shots. Defenders are also referred to as Fullbacks and, if in a center position, might be called a Sweeper or a Stopper.

Midfielder (M): Midfielders help transition the ball between the Defenders and the Forwards. They also support the Forwards in the attack and as the first line of defense. Their overall role is dependent on the team's chosen strategy, which might be for them to take on more of an attacking role or stay back and help the defense more. They are also referred to as Halfbacks and, if positioned toward the sideline, might be called a Wing or Winger.

Forward (F): The main priority of Forwards, also called Strikers or Attackers, is to penetrate, create opportunities to score and to ultimately score. In most strategies, their overall role will change very little. The skills the player must have, however, may. For example: When playing long-ball style, the player's stamina and heading may matter more. If the style of play leans toward passing, however, dribbling and trapping should be considered as well.

Substitutes: The Substitutes sit on the bench until the coach needs them to sub in for another player who is playing poorly or whose stamina has run out. You can substitute players at any time during a match by pressing the START button on the Controller and selecting Tactics to return to the Team Roster page.

FORMATIONS

The different formations determine how the players are positioned on the field. The numbers below refer to the number of Defenders, Midfielders and Forwards there are (in that order).

1-1-3

Pros: Most directly offensive formation.

1. Puts half the team in the attacking end, which can result in many scoring chances.
2. Good choice if the team is losing the match and needs to score, or if the team has an outstanding Defender and Midfielder.

Cons: The defensive power it provides is the worst of all the formations.

1-2-2

Pros: This is an offensive-weighted formation.

1. Good presence in the midfield, which aids the transition from defense to offense.
2. Good choice if the lone Defender is strong, and when the team needs to improve scoring without excessive risk.

Cons: It may provide more goal-scoring chances for the other team.

1-3-1

Pros: This puts the strength of the team at the midfield.

1. Many players in the midfield allows the team a better chance of keeping the ball in the opponent's end.
2. Good choice if the team has an outstanding Defender or Forward, or lacks good midfield players.
3. The key to getting the most benefit from this formation is to use the midfield to support the defense at times, and to provide scoring punch when needed.

Cons: If the lone Defender gets beaten, the Midfielder is usually too far away to help in time.

2-1-2

Pros: A balanced formation, equal in both the offense and defense.

1. Lends itself well to quick counterattacks because of the concentration of players at opposite ends.
2. Good choice if the team's most-skilled player is positioned at midfield.

Cons: Lack of midfield depth, but its overall balance makes it a good choice in all cases.

2-2-1

Pros: One of the better defensive formations.

1. Gives the team a solid line of Defenders and a good midfield presence.
2. Good choice if the team has a strong goal-scorer who can score quickly when an opening appears.

Cons: The team's attack is directed into the middle, where the opponent's defense is usually concentrated.

3-1-1

Pros: The safest of all the formations.

1. Many players in front of the goal.
2. Limits the opposing team's attack.
3. Good choice if the team has a big lead, is playing for a tie, or if the team has poor Defenders.

Cons: Lacks players positioned to attack the opponent's goal.

STRATEGIES

The strategy a team uses determines the aggressiveness of the team and the way they play the game.

Offense 1

This strategy focuses the team's energy on scoring, but does so with short, quick passes.

1. The defense plays a midfield role, while the Midfielders support the Forwards in the attack.
2. Attempts to contain the ball near the offensive end until a scoring result is achieved.
3. The defense is vulnerable to a long-ball counterattack.

Offense 2

This strategy is the most aggressive, offensive style known to the Backyard Soccer League.

1. The defense takes the midfield and the Midfielders and Forwards are unified in the charge to score.
2. This style emphasizes an aggressive long-ball attack, attempting to create immediate scoring opportunities.

Normal 1

This strategy balances a solid defense with a controlled counterattack.

1. The midfield supports the defense when needed, and assists the Forwards during the attack.
2. This style emphasizes short, accurate passes and patience to await the opening for a scoring chance.
3. This is a good strategy if the team has players with good ball control and passing ability.

Normal 2

This strategy features a good balance of defense with an emphasis on fast transitioning to the attack.

1. The midfield aids on defense, but rushes upfield to support the Forwards when the ball is won.
2. This style has a spread out, open attack, with aggressive forward runs to allow long passes over the midfield.
3. This is a good strategy if the defense has good kicking ability, or the Forwards have great speed.

Defense 1

This defensive strategy stresses time of possession.

1. The entire team packs into the defensive half, making it difficult for the opposition to get a good scoring chance. Once the team wins the ball, the players are positioned simply to play keep-away. The theory behind this is that if the other team can't win the ball, they can't score.
2. This strategy is best used to protect a lead, but requires good ball handlers.

Defense 2

This defensive strategy utilizes the long-ball to keep the ball away from the team's goal.

1. The entire team protects the goal until the ball is won. The Forwards then run to provide a deep outlet to the defense. At the worst, the long clearances from the defense will waste precious time for the opposition.
2. This strategy is useful for protecting a lead, especially when the Defenders have excellent kicking ability.

Coach-Assigned Play Tactics

The players' heads in the small field window have a red square, a yellow arrow or two green arrows behind them. These indicate the type of play each team member will exhibit, depending on the formation and strategy you pick.

Red Square

Players will not leave their designated zone. Defenders and Midfielders will look to pass the ball forward and will only dribble short distances. They will look to pass the ball forward at the earliest safe moment. Offense and Midfielders will look to track back by one zone to assist the defense.

Yellow Arrow

Players will look to push forward to the front edge of their zone and seek attacking options. Defenders or Midfielders in possession of the ball will dribble forward outside of their zone, and they will pass or shoot as the best opportunity arises. Dribbling, passing and shooting are all equally weighted choices.

Two Green Arrows

Very aggressive play. Players will look to push forward at every opportunity. They will advance into the next zone without the ball to seek attacking options. Dribbling and passing are equally weighted choices. Players will attempt to make a goal at the first suitable opportunity.

Attention and aggression strongly affect how an individual will react to the events on the field around them. A player with low aggression will not chase a ball down and is less likely to make a tackle than a more aggressive player. A player with low attention will miss much of what is happening on the field around them. However, players with low stamina will quickly tire if they're running around too much. Learn players' strengths and weaknesses to mold the best team.

Select the yellow arrow in the bottom right of the screen and then press the X button to send your team off to their first match!

PLAYING BACKYARD SOCCER™

PRE-MATCH COMMENTARY

If you have the commentary option enabled, Sunny Day and Earl Grey will give you the lowdown before each game!

VERSUS SCREEN

After the commentary, you will see the opposing team badges and names, and the chosen playing field. Proceeding from here will start the match!

GAME RULES

Backyard Soccer League rules are a hybrid of U10 and professional soccer rules:

1. Offside is called within the 19-yard area in front of the goal.
2. Fouls occurring outside of the penalty box result in direct free kicks.
3. Fouls occurring within the penalty box result in penalty kicks.
4. Balls that go out of bounds result in the appropriate throw-in, goal kick or corner kick.
5. Substitutions are unlimited.
6. No robots allowed.

Special Exception for Indoor Tournament Play: No offside is called.

Clarification of Offside Rule: A player can be called offside when the ball is played to him/her if there are fewer than two opponents (including the goalie) between that player and the goal.

CONTROLS

You have the choice of playing with a 1-button method, or a 4-button method. You can change this setting from the Choose Controller screen or from the Advanced Options part of the Game Options screen, which can be accessed via the Clubhouse, the Team Information screens and via the START button during a match.

1-Button Method

Use the directional buttons to move your selected player, and the X button to shoot, tackle, pass and change players.

4-Button Method

Use the directional buttons to move your selected player; the X button to tackle and shoot; the ▲ button to switch players; the ■ button to pass, and the X button to boot the ball in the direction you are facing.

Passing Method

The game's Artificial Intelligence (AI) will decide to whom to pass the ball. With the 1-button method, it will also decide whether to pass the ball or to kick it.

KICKOFF

A kickoff is a way of starting or restarting play and occurs in the following circumstances:

1. At the start of the match.
2. After a goal has been scored.
3. At the start of the second half of the match.

The Away team kicks off to start the match. The Home team kicks off the second half of the match.

When you kick off, an arrow shows the player to whom you will kick the ball. Press the left and right directional buttons to change where you want to pass the ball.

All players stand on their half of the field, with the opponents of the team taking the kickoff at least eight yards from the ball until it is in play. The ball is stationary on the center mark until the referee gives a signal. The ball is in play when:

1. It is kicked and moves forward.
2. The kicker does not touch the ball a second time.
3. It has touched another player.

After a team scores a goal, the opposite team takes the kickoff.

Once the ball is in play, the objective is to use your players to move it downfield toward the opponent's goal, and then knock it in. It sounds easier than it is, but with some time and effort you'll find you're racking up the goals!

THROW INS & CORNER KICKS

When the ball goes out of play, your kicker will go to take the Throw In or Corner Kick. Choose which player to whom to pass or throw the ball by pressing the left and right directional buttons — an arrow icon will show to which player the ball will be aimed. In a multiplayer game, the player controlling the kicker at the time the ball goes out of play will get to take the corner kick or throw-in.

FREE KICKS

Free kicks are taken in a similar way to Throw Ins and Corner Kicks. Your kicker will step up to take the kick. Press the left and right directional buttons to choose to whom to pass the ball. When you are choosing where to kick the ball, you may see the arrow icon change color and point to your opponent's goal. This indicates that the goal is the currently selected target. You may use this setting to try a direct shot on the goal with the free kick. In a multiplayer game, the player controlling the kicker at the time the free kick call is made will get to take the free kick.

PENALTIES

A penalty kick is awarded when a defending player fouls an attacker inside the penalty area. If the Tie Game Ends setting (under Game Options — see page 26) is set to Penalty Kicks prior to the game, penalty kicks are used to end tied games.

To kick a penalty, press the X button for a straight shot, the □ button to curve the ball left, and the ● button to curve the ball right. The penalty kicker will then start his or her run up to the ball. Before the shot is taken, quickly use the directional buttons to direct the kick on the goal.

To try to block a penalty, wait until the kick happens — a target indicator will show where the shot is heading. Quickly press the directional buttons to make your Goalkeeper dive to try to save the ball.

In a multiplayer game, the player with the lowest player number on that team will get to control the kicker and take the penalty, or control the Goalkeeper and try to block it.

THE PLAYERS

Each player has unique attributes, playing abilities, historical statistics and the potential to play differently each time the game is played. For example, having siblings on the same team can cause one or both players to make errors, or play better, depending on their relationship! Listening to the player comments on the Player Details/Stats screen may hint at these attributes.

Each player is guided by his or her own Artificial Intelligence (AI) on the field, which is based primarily on that player's unique characteristics. This helps keep the game going by directing the players to tend the goals, set up for defense, pass the ball, etc. The only player not run entirely by his/her own AI is the player you have currently selected.

POWER-UPS

Power-ups randomly appear on the field, and they disappear if they are not picked up. To pick one up, move a player over it. Of course, the opposing team can do the same!

If your team has an active power-up, you'll see a picture of it at the bottom of the screen. Power-ups are triggered automatically when you take a shot on your opponent's goal and are in range. They expire within a certain amount of time or after a single use.

Cannonball — This ball shoots so fast, flames follow it! And it explodes when it hits the goal.

Bowling Ball — This ball is really heavy and no one can stop it. It will only stop when it hits the goal!

Twister — This is a very special ball. The ball becomes a mini tornado, twisting and turning everything around in its path to the goal.

Undergrounder — When you kick this ball it dives underground and pops up behind the goal line. This power-up will only occur in outdoor fields.

PAUSED GAME MENU

Pressing the START button on your Controller at any point during a match accesses the Paused Game Menu. Use the directional buttons to highlight an option, and the X button to select it. The options are:

- Continue Game Returns you to the match.
- Game Options Brings up the Game Options screen described on page 26.
- Replay Replays the last three seconds of action and then resumes the match!
- Tactics Takes you to the Team Roster screen where you can make a change in your lineup and strategy.
- Quit Game You will be asked to confirm if you want to quit the game in progress. Highlight either "Yes" or "No" and then press the X button. If you confirm "Yes," the match will stop and you will be taken back to the Clubhouse screen. Any progress you've made in play will be lost.

GAME OPTIONS

The game options are available from the Clubhouse and may also be accessed by pressing the START button during a game.

Play by Play	Turns Sunny Day's detailed and sequential gameplay talk on or off.
Commentary	Turns pre-game, halftime and post-game talk on or off.
Action Replays	Turns automatic replays of goal scores on or off.
Player Talking	Turns on-field comments made by the player on or off.
Penalty Chatter	Turns chatter of the players on or off.
Screen Titles	Turns pop-up screen identifiers on or off.

Note: The following Season Play settings can only be altered prior to starting a game, while in the Clubhouse:

Game Length	Almost dinner time? Choose Short for a 3-minute match. Ready for the long haul? Choose Long for a 6-minute match.
Tie Game Ends	Do you want to end a tied game by having a penalty shootout? If so, choose Penalty Kicks. If not, choose Tie.
Offsides	Turns offside calls on or off.
Fouls	Tired of hearing the referee? Turn foul calls on or off.

For more options, highlight the Advanced Options icon (shoes & pump) at the top right of the Game Options screen and then press the X button.

ADVANCED OPTIONS

From this screen, you can set the relative sound effects (SFX), speech and music volumes, change the screen position on the TV, and even change the control method (1- or 4-button) and Controller vibration options of up to four Controllers (more than two Controllers requires an optional Multi Tap).

Highlight the arrows on either side of the volume indicators and press the X button to adjust the volume levels. A sound will play to help you determine the right setting for you.

To adjust the screen position, highlight the Screen Position button and press the X button. Use the directional buttons to reposition the screen. Press the X button again to confirm the new position, or press the ▲ button to revert to the old position.

If playing with a DUALSHOCK™ analog Controller, select the On/Off buttons next to the relevant Controller picture to switch the vibration function on and off.

To change the control method for an individual Controller, highlight the icon beneath the Controller picture and then press the X button. This will toggle between the 1-button control and the 4-button control methods.
