Introduction

Hello! Some of you may remember me from your last visit to LEGO® Island; I'm The Infomaniac!

I know nearly everything there is to know about LEGO Island, as I built it myself about a zillion years ago. Call me whenever you have a question!

Since the Brickster went to jail, things have really settled down. We've had a chance to repair the island and even expand a little; after all, building is what we do best here on LEGO Island.

Some of the braver citizens have even been exploring the seas around LEGO Island. They've made contact with an amazing variety of people and seen far-off lands I never imagined in my wildest dreams!

You're very welcome here, so why don't you stay for a while and have a look around the Island? Talk to everyone you meet, as you never know who will tell you something important and you'll find that just about everybody is helpful and friendly....well, except that trickster the Brickster but luckily he's still locked up in the Jail.

Feel free to explore everywhere and experiment with whatever you find; there is no wrong way to play LEGO Island 2! Oh...just one thing: don't ever give the Brickster one of Papa's hotsoy tots supreme hot pizza times two! It'll melt anything...!

My most important piece of advice is HAVE FUN!

Getting Started

Set up your PlayStation game console according to the instructions in its Instruction Manual. Make sure the power is off before inserting or removing a compact disc. Insert the LEGO® Island2 disc and close the Disc Cover. Insert game controllers and turn on the PlayStation game console. Follow on-screen instructions to start a game.

Quick Start

You are Pepper the dude with the food! After watching the introduction movie, the Main Menu will be displayed. Select Start New Game and off you go!

LEGO Island 2 is an adventure game in which you play the main character and hero; a boy named Pepper Roni. Pepper is a pizza delivery boy, working for Papa Brickolini at LEGO Island's pizzeria. When the game begins, you will be asked by The Infomaniac to deliver a number of pizzas to the inhabitants of LEGO Island. In return for delivering Papa's yummy pizza to them, your friends will give you bricks with which to build a new house. Your new house is cool, and will allow access to many special options within the game! In addition, it provides ample space to display the trophies you have been awarded as you progress through the game, for completing tough challenges.

Your Quest

LEGO ISLAND

What's next ?

Your imagination is the only limit on LEGO Island. Explore to your heart's content; everybody has something to say. Check out everything that you see around you as there are many surprises waiting to be discovered!

As a pizza delivery boy, you will be busy taking orders all over the Island. Find The Infomaniac if you need any help, or errrr..... information!

At the jail, you will find that treacherous trickster; the Brickster! He's safely behind bars but even so, don't trust him one little bit! He's more cunning than a very cunning person on the most cunning day of their life!

Once the chase begins, you will gain points for most activities. You can increase your score by collecting Constructopedia pages and other items like gems, which are hidden around the islands.

There are many challenges ahead and to complete all of them you might need a little help. Look at the following pages for information on the controls that you will need to use to become a winner and save LEGO Island!

Sub-Games

Sub-Game Control Systems

As your quest takes you further from home you will face many challenges, sometimes to help others and sometimes escaping at the double with the Brickster's minions at your heels! To continue the journey you will usually have to win each challenge and this may take all of your skill and intelligence.

Each sub-game has its own control system, and these are detailed below:

Whack-a-Bot

The mainframe computer is broken and you must help The Infomaniac to fix it. The Infomaniac is deep inside the computer, trying to reconnect the Brickster-Bot heads collected earlier. Unfortunately, being mischievous (not to mention deeply silly...), they keep trying to escape through the four vents on top of the mainframe. Now you must use your skills to 'whack' them back inside. Be careful not to hit The Infomaniac when he comes up for a breather or vital time may be lost!

Items & Inventory

Throughout LEGO Island 2 you will find a variety of items that will help you along the way. Sometimes people will ask you to collect things too. The most important items are the Constructopedia pages, scattered by the mischievous Brickster! Without these, you and your friends cannot rebuild your houses! However, there are many other items that are just as vital to your Quest. Try to collect everything you can, as even the most apparently unexciting item may be very valuable to someone out there...and who knows what they might give you in return?

Constructopedia Pages

You must collect all the pages of the Constructopedia, which the Brickster dropped after he escaped from the jail. Each page will allow you to reconstruct a building on LEGO Island (including your own house!). As buildings are reconstructed, characters will be able to provide you with more resources to further your search for the dastardly Brickster.

Brickster-Bot heads

The Brickster's henchmen the Brickster-Bots, will try to stop you in any way they can. Luckily, you can knock the Brickster-Bots over, by throwing pizzas at them! You must collect special Brickster-Bot heads to help The Infomaniac fix the computer.

Rumor has it that there are Brickster-Bots who are immune to pizza...maybe they have another weakness?

Gems, Goblets and Space Crystals

Collecting valuable gems, shiny golden goblets and glittering space crystals will help you to increase your score. This could earn you a bright, spangly reward!

You will also be awarded medals, for your performance in sub-games. These will be displayed on shelves in your house, for all to admire.

Icons

Both on LEGO Island, and during the many challenging sub-games you must complete, icons will appear on the screen. These icons are there to give information about that particular stage of your quest or the game in progress, and proper understanding may be important if you want to win!

Pizza counter

At the beginning of LEGO Island 2, you must deliver pizzas to the Island's inhabitants. The counter icon at the top of the screen, will show you how many pizzas you must deliver, before you can enjoy your brand new home!

Brick counter

When you deliver a pizza to each LEGO Island resident, they will give you a brick in return to help build your new house. The brick counter will display how many bricks you have still to collect.

Constructopedia Page Counter

As you find pages for the Constructopedia, it helps to re-assemble the buildings on LEGO Island. The number of pages yet to collect is displayed on screen, next to the page icon.

Icons

Brickster-Bot Heads

The Brickster's mischievous (but deeply silly...) henchmen are wreaking havoc on LEGO Island! You must bowl the Brickster-Bots over with flying pizzas, and also collect special Brickster-Bot heads to help The Infomaniac.

Gems/Golden Goblets/Space Crystals

In the course of your search you will need to leave LEGO Island and journey to far away places, and other Islands. There will be other valuables such as gems, golden goblets and space crystals to collect in these areas and also many more challenges to face!

Places of Interest

On LEGO Island, there are many places where you can find important information and hints. Some of these you will discover for yourself, but your House and The Information Center are well worth checking out!

Pepper's House

Press the START button to pause the game and a menu will be displayed. Select Pepper's House and then press the X button.

In your own cosy home, you have a computer, which is used mainly in your spare time. From here, you can access any of the sub-games currently unlocked in LEGO Island 2.

You will find all of the trophies that have been awarded to you kept on the shelf. This 'Trophy Shelf' represents how far you have advanced on your quest. You are awarded trophies for your performance in sub-games, and may re-try them from your house, in order to achieve a better medal and a better score.

Places of Interest

The Information Center

As its name suggests, this building contains information about everything on LEGO Island!

The map at the back of the room gives access to the buildings around LEGO Island and, more importantly, the characters that live in them. By selecting the buildings, you can view each of the characters in the game.

This is also where The Infomaniac may usually be found. However, you can call upon The Infomaniac at any time and wherever he is by using the holographic link-up. The Infomaniac is always willing to share a little information! Just call upon him by holding down the talk O button.

Skate Park

Near Pepper's House is the Skate Park, where you may practice skateboarding to your heart's content. Below are some cool tricks you can do on your board, but you should experiment and discover even cooler stunts for yourself! Jump in the air, while on your skateboard, and try pressing different button combinations to perform a new trick.

Skateboard Tricks

Button Combination	Trick Name
Hold directional button/left stick RIGHT, and then press the  button	Mute
Hold directional button/left stick DOWN, and then press the  button	McGrab

Hints and Tips

Pick up any items you find. Even if you cannot see an immediate use for something, you never know when you'll meet someone who is looking for just that very item!

Avoid getting in the way of cars, as this may cause you to be told off.

Speak to everyone; you never know who will give you that vital clue to catching the Brickster!

If you want to take a break and do something different, go and chat to Darren. As LEGO Island's resident cool dude, he knows a great deal about the island and always has a few ideas for having fun! Make sure to experiment with your surroundings!

When skateboarding, try practicing some tricks; not only will you look cool, but you could find it very rewarding.

If you are in a vehicle, try using different techniques or try to reach difficult areas; but drive carefully!
